Trustees' Activity At Standstill

Judge Charles Barker of the Benton County Circuit Court Tuesday over-ruled a motion to dismiss an injunction and suit filed in that county last year against the Board of Trustees for the Pettis-Benton County Junior College District.

In effect, the Tuesday ruling continues to bar the board of trustees from any activity concerned with the junior college, which would be located here.

The injunction and suit were filed while Judge William Neff was Circuit Judge in that County.

William Hopkins, president of the JuCo board of trustees, Dr. Gordon Stauffacher, secretary of the board, and attorneys William F. Brown and James Buckley travelled to Warsaw to file the motion.

Hopkins reported that a trial date in the case has been set for Sept. 4, or the September term of court in Benton County.

Several motions were filed last year to obtain a change of venue in the case, but they were over-ruled by Judge Neff. Wednesday, Buckley indicated that further attempts would be made to remove the case from the jurisdiction of the court in Warsaw.

Name Winners Of Forensic Tourney Here

Missouri University Laboratory High School of Columbia was announced as the winner of the sweepstakes trophy at the ninth annual Smith-Cotton Forensic Tournament which was held in Sedalia on February 17 and 18.

Approximately 500 students from twenty-two Missouri schools participated in such events as duet acting, dramatic interpretation, humorous reading, poetry reading, original oratory, and debate.

First place in championship debate was the team from MU Lab High School, with second place going to Truman High School of Independence.

An announcement made by Dan B. Curtis, director of forensics at Smith-Cotton said that thanks was to be expressed to all those Sedalia businessmen and women who helped make this year's forensic tournament the best in the history of the high school by serving as judges of the various dramatic and debate events.

Religious Vigil For Protest Is Started

ROSLYN HEIGHTS, N.Y. (AP) — A community-wide 24-hour religious vigil to protest Soviet anti-Semitism began Tuesday night in this Nassau County town at the Temple Beth Shalom.

Congregation members of the Temple Sinai, Temple Beth Shalom and Friendship Baptist church took part in the interfaith services. Nassau County Executive Eugene H. Nickerson spoke.

The Rev. Thomas P. Stewart, pastor of the Roslyn Presbyterian church, said, "There was a wide spectrum of people there. I saw Negro domestics there I know, and I saw some senior executives who work in New York City."

RIO DE JANEIRO—Trapped beneath the rubble of a collapsed apartment house, Berenice Maranhao, 19, suffers Tuesday while waiting to be rescued. Firemen struggled 17 hours to free her. Doctors rushed drugs, blood plasma and oxygen to keep life in her body while teams of firemen chipped at the blocks of concrete that threatened to become her tomb. Finally freed, she died a half hour after reaching the hospital. She was trapped when a rain-weakened mountainside released a huge boulder that toppled a private house, which in turn toppled the apartment house. (UPI)

Crime Alert In Sedalia Paying Off

A Crime Alert call paid dividends again last night when Sedalia police picked up two men in downtown Sedalia. At the time of the apprehension, police were not aware that a local business had been broken into.

Police received a call at 2:18 a.m. reporting two suspects were seen running along an alley, carrying suitcases. The alley is located between Second and Third, and Ohio and Lamine.

Then, about four minutes later, police learned the Singer Sewing Machine Co., had been broken into. Reported missing were a portable typewriter, two stereo record players, one portable sewing machine and two portable television sets. Total value was set at about $800.

Held by city police Wednesday morning were Buddy R. Esser, 423 South New York, and Gerald R. Antoine, 1704 South Montgomery. Both were questioned by the police and Pettis County Prosecuting Attorney Henry Keeler.

Both men were charged in a state complaint signed by Keeler with second degree burglary and stealing. Bond was set at $3,000. The men were turned over to county authorities this afternoon.

Community Law Enforcement Series Planned

There will be a series of Workshop - Seminars on community law enforcement problems conducted by the department of law enforcement, Central Missouri State College, beginning a four week series Thursday evening. The meetings will be held on successive Thursdays beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The community members will meet in the Magistrate Court Room in the Pettis County Court House and the police personnel will meet in the City Hall Building, upstairs in the Council Chambers.

The Attorney General of the State of Missouri and the FBI will participate in the Seminars.

The final meeting in Sedalia will be Thursday, March 23. Sedalia will be focal point for citizens of surrounding counties who will attend these meetings, the purpose of which is to acquaint civic leaders with the need for cohesion between the public and law enforcement officials.

Missile Control May Be Included In Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials say they are willing to include discussion of offensive missile controls in talks on curbing missile defense systems, as the Soviets apparently desire.

State Department press officer Robert J. McCloskey said Tuesday that U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson discussed the antimissile question Saturday in Moscow with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin.

To Lay Off Lake City Employees

Approximately 3,550 contractor employees at Lake City Army Ammunition Plant, Independence, Mo., are to be laid off over a seven-month period beginning Feb. 24. Army spokesmen said the layoff is due to a curtailment in small arms ammunition schedules released by the Department of Army and Air Force. Remington Arms Co., Inc., is the contractor-operator of the government-owned plant.

As a result of the reduction in workload it will also be necessary to separate approximately 30 Civil Service employees who had been hired on a temporary basis.

Personnel to be affected during the seven-month period ending Sept. 17 include inspectors, maintenance personnel, clerical production, stores and material-handling workers, and tool room operators.

Army spokesmen emphasized that the Missouri State Employment Security Office in Kansas City will cooperate fully in attempting to obtain employment for the laid-off workers. That office will also furnish information on the provisions of the Manpower Development and Training Act.

Violation Of Wage Measure Is Alleged

Violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act by the Skelly Oil Company was alleged in a civil injunction suit on file Tuesday in U.S. District Court at Kansas City.

The complaint filed by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz alleged failure to pay the minimum wage and overtime required by the statute to employees of the firm's bulk station at 1200 West Main, Sedalia. It also alleged that Skelly's records failed to show adequately and accurately the actual hours worked by employees, and their rates of pay.

The injunction sought would order future compliance with the law, and payment of back wages due four employees.

G. Truman Hall, supervisor of the Labor Department's Kansas City Wage-Hour office, said the company's main office is at Tulsa, Okla., but it has a district marketing office at 605 West 47th, Kansas City.

Authorities Still Seek Lone Bandit

A lone bandit, armed with a small caliber revolver, robbed a service station in Cooper County of about $150-$200 at 7:25 p.m. Tuesday, and Wednesday police authorities in six counties were still seeking the thief.

Cooper County Sheriff Lilburn Mann said the unidentified robber walked into the service station and demanded money from 17-year-old Bill Potter, attendant at the station and brother of the owner. Young Potter lives a short distance from the station.

Reports indicate the man who robbed the station was accompanied by two other persons, one of them a female, but neither of them came inside the station. Sheriff Mann said they remained in the car while the hold-up was in progress.

The robbery took place just before Potter was ready to lock up for the night. Sheriff Mann said Potter had the cash register receipts in a paper bag, which lay next to the register when the robber walked in.

Potter was not harmed. He did not know who the thief was, Mann said.

Ironically, two Cooper County deputy sheriffs were in the area on patrol. However, their car was not equipped with two-way radios. At the same time, two highway patrolmen were several hundred yards away from the station, but out of view, on a routine traffic case.

Neither the deputies nor the patrolmen knew the robbery was in progress or had occurred until a dispatch from Highway (Please turn to Page 2, Col. 4)

Heavy Casualties Reported From Red Mortar Attacks

Tanks In Same Area Beat Off Cong Suicide Troops

SAIGON (AP)—A U.S. company of infantry suffered heavy casualties in two Communist mortar attacks during the night as it was setting up a base camp in the central highlands facing the Cambodian border, U.S. military headquarters announced today.

A spokesman said the company of 178 men of the U.S. 4th Infantry division was hit by heavy mortar shelling 41 miles southwest of Kontum City. The term heavy casualties usually means a unit is no longer an effective fighting force.

Seek Ouster For Miller, Police Chief

Merit System Also Hit By Local Petition

Petitions seeking the ouster of Sedalia Chief of Police William E. Miller and the merit system under which his department is operating are being circulated in some sections of the city, it was learned today.

Chief Miller said he had received "notice" several weeks ago that such a move might be made. He added, however, that he had no definite proof the petition existed until Tuesday.

Miller said Lt. Jewell Riley reported to him he had seen the petition in question. Checks made by the Sedalia Democrat-Capital Wednesday morning failed to locate a copy of the petition. It was learned, however, the document had circulated among business places, taverns and recreation centers on Main Street Tuesday.

"We can't prove it, of course, but the petition originated because the police department urged the council to pass an ordinance regulating gambling in the city," Miller said Wednesday.

Miller added when sources outside the department learned of the plan to call for a gambling ordinance, he received telephone calls indicating a move seeking the termination of Miller's role as chief of police would be made.

Some reports, purely speculative, indicated that as many as 2,000 signatures had been obtained as of Wednesday.

The petition would have to be presented to the city council during regular session before any action could be taken on it.

If the merit system would be abolished, the council apparently would have to pass another ordinance to abolish the first one. Since city offices were closed in observance of a legal holiday Wednesday, it could not be learned what percentage of voters would be needed in a petition to make it valid.

Four 4th Division tanks in the same area beat off a close-quarter attack by Communist suicide troops who climbed aboard the armored vehicles. The tank crews raked each other's turrets with machine-gun fire to clear off the Communists, and U.S. headquarters said the tankmen sustained no casualties and only light damage to three tanks.

It was the first time reported in the Vietnam war that the enemy climbed onto tanks although this was a tactic frequently employed by the Communists in the Korean war.

Ground action continued brisk with the U.S. military command reporting 160 enemy killed in clashes across the country. U.S. Marines in the northern provinces accounted for more than half of the enemy toll, reporting 88 Communists troops killed in scattering fighting. This included 48 killed in Operation Deckhouse 6 on the coastal plains 38 miles southeast of Quang Ngai City.

To the south, waves of high-flying U.S. B52 bombers pounded War Zone C in four raids against the major Viet Cong jungle stronghold where its national headquarters is believed located close to the Cambodian border.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Who should Sandra Ivey look up to see walk into her kitchen but an unidentified baboon, standing 28 inches tall.

Mrs. Ivey called Dennis Kroepin at the animal shelter in Sylmar. Kroepin arrived, grappled with the baboon for 30 minutes and subdued it.

Richard Babb, senior kennelman at the animal shelter, said Tuesday he'll hold the animal eight days, then give it to a zoo if nobody claims it.

Third Term

Rename Yates Chamber Head

Carl W. Yates, Jr., was again elected president of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, at the meeting of the new board Tuesday afternoon at the Farm and Home Association Building, with Tom Keating elected first vice-president and Richard A. Fitzwilliam again elected second vice-president.

Yates, who has served as president for the past two years, had not intended to go on for a third year, but accepted when the board nominated him and asked him to continue. Due to the fact that the first vice-president, Dick Monsees, who should have moved up to the presidency did not want to do so, and the second vice-president, Fitzwilliam, also did not want to move up but was willing to remain as second vice-president, Yates felt that under the circumstances it was his duty to continue in the office at the request and election of the new board. The only other nomination made was that of Neil Chapman, who asked that his name be withdrawn as he could not serve if elected.

Members of the new board present at the meeting were: William Hall, P. J. Hedrick, Clifford Barr, James Van Wagner, William Hiatt and E. N. Healey. Directors having another year to serve who were present were: C. J. (Neil) Chapman, Richard Parkhurst, Robert Mason, H. Mike O'Connor, and K. A. Klamert. James Callis became a new member of the board moving up through the election of Keating to first vice-president. Callis was the next in line according to the recent election by the membership.

One member of the old board present who went off at this meeting was Herb Taylor. Officers present were: Carl Yates, president; Tom Keating, newly elected first vice-president; Richard Fitzwilliam, second vice-president; Gary Cooper, executive manager; and Mrs. Vivian Warren, treasurer; and P. Cecil Owen, ex officio.

Yates presided over the meeting. Believing that he was ending his presidency at the board, Yates said: "I want to thank you for the (Please Turn to Page 2 Col. 6)

Jaycee Board Meet Here On Weekend

Approximately 500 Jaycees and wives will visit Sedalia this weekend for the Jaycee winter board meeting which will have headquarters at Bothwell Hotel where they will register.

Members of the two organizations in Sedalia have planned entertainment for the visitors which will begin with an informal mixer Friday evening to be held at the Agricultural Building on the Fairgrounds.

The Jaycees will have a luncheon Saturday noon while the Jaycee Wives will hold jointly their luncheon and business meeting. A banquet that evening will be held at Smith-Cotton High School Cafeteria.

The Bill Suttle, national president of the Jaycees, will be the speaker at the Sunday morning meeting which will be held at the Court House.

The theme for the weekend has been titled "Roman Holiday" so many of the Jaycee wives will be wearing Roman togas for the affairs. Members of the Latin Club of Smith-Cotton will provide Latin skirts for the Jaycee Wives luncheon.

The state winner of the Outstanding Young Educator, Outstanding Young Man and the Outstanding Young Woman will be announced.

"Red" Gill will be the speaker at the men's noon luncheon with Norman Anderson to be the speaker at the Saturday evening banquet.

Red Cross Receives UF Allocation

The Sedalia - Pettis County United Fund approved an original allocation of $17,000 to the 1967 Red Cross budget. Upon achieving 88 per cent of the proposed goal in last fall's campaign, the allocation was reduced proportionately to $14,960, which represents 19.5 per cent of the total monies raised.

Red Cross receives the largest allocation among the 14 participating agencies, with the Boy Scouts being second largest.

Car Theft Topic For Optimists

Chief of Police William Miller was the speaker at Optimist Club Tuesday noon at the meeting held at State Fair Restaurant. He stated that car stealing is one of the fastest growing felonies, and pointed out that a felony means prison, or, if not old enough for prison, the institution for younger boys, and this can ruin their lives.

The stealing of the car the first time and getting away with it makes it seem easy, but finally they are certain to be caught if they continue, and then comes the punishment which gives them a record.

People who leave their keys in their cars and leave their doors unlocked on their cars are contributing to the car stealing by juveniles, and thus to delinquency. They are responsible for starting youngsters on a path of crime, Chief Miller said, for many young boys are tempted by seeing a car with keys in it to try it out to see how fast it will go, or to show it off to friends, or just to joy ride. That is the first step toward a criminal record.

Over a half million cars were stolen last year in the United States, said Miller, and 33 were stolen in Sedalia.

Chief Miller went on to say that there are professional car stealing rings, and a great one was broken in New York last week, but 80 per cent of cars stolen are by those under 18 years of age.

Of the stolen cars, he continued, 85 per cent are returned to the owners but the average damage is $200.

Of the 33 car thefts in Sedalia last year, ten more than in 1965, 22 had the ignition keys in them, one had the key in the ash tray and one on the floor board.

People can do a lot to prevent this. No. 1, Chief Miller advised, be sure to remove the keys and lock the doors. No. 2, don't leave packages of value in the car where they may be seen even if the doors are locked, for the windows can be smashed. No. 3, avoid parking on dimly lighted streets. Most of the car thefts are done in residential sections. No. 4, when parking in a paid parking lot be sure to get the check.

Each of you, he told the Optimist members, has a key to solve this increasing crime, the key to your car.

R. L. Settles, president, presided over the meeting, and introduced the speaker in the absence of the program chairman, Pete Stohr.

Settles told of the District Optimist Board meeting he attended and stated that the Sedalia club was praised for the "Crime Alert" program which it is sponsoring.

Chief Miller stated this program in which he is co-sponsor, is really paying off, there were two such calls Monday that led to arrests by the police.

Invocation was by the Rev. Charles Hendrickson.

Jack Huddleston was introduced as a guest of John Herbst. Settles announced that the Missouri District under the governorship of Alex George was No. 1, out of 41 districts in Optimist International.

Keeler Speaks At Sunrise Optimist Meet

Prosecuting Attorney Henry Keeler was the speaker at the Sunrise Optimist Club meeting held Tuesday morning at the State Fair Restaurant. He based his talk on one of the first cases he ever had and took a vote to see what the verdict would be if the members had been in the place of the judge.

All of the members gave the same verdict as the judge except two.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Bill Trout, and invocation was given by the Rev. Marvin Nobles.

Program Chairman Lowell Hesterlee introduced the speaker.

Tom McCulley, vice president, introduced a new member, Garland Groom, the new Boy Scout director.

Gene Cook, attendance committee, led the group in repeating the Optimist Creed for adjournment.

Police Reports

Zelphy Thompson, 419 East 28th, reported to police Tuesday that as she stepped from her back porch, she heard a gun shot west of her, then she stated that she heard the bullet whiz by her head. She then went back inside and called the police. Officer James Lawson went to the scene, but didn't find anyone in the area where the shot was reported fired.

John Rowles 1000 South Missouri, reported to the police Tuesday that a window at the Skelly Station, Broadway and Limit, had been broken out by someone who entered the building. The value of the window was set at $50. Nothing was reported as being stolen from the station.

Phillip R. Baldwin, 509 West Second, told Sedalia police late last night he awoke on North Highway 65 after apparently being beaten in the 200 block on West Main Street. Police found Baldwin wandering about in the 900 block on West Main.

He was taken to Bothwell Hospital by Officers Tom Watson and James Curry. At the hospital, Baldwin was treated for a laceration above the left eye, requiring 23 sutures. The hospital reported he also suffered two lost teeth and numerous other facial lacerations.

Baldwin was treated at the hospital and released. The police report indicated Baldwin had no idea who attacked him, nor why. An investigation is being carried out.

Non-Cash Factors Considered

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans, already offered $800,000 by Miami Beach for the privilege of entertaining the 1968 GOP nominating convention, plan now to consider non-financial factors before selecting a site.

Republican National Chairman Ray Bliss told a news conference Tuesday that money offers wouldn't be the overriding factor in picking a convention location.

"Even if a city offered $1 million or $2 million in cash but didn't have the facilities or the rooms available, I wouldn't select it," Bliss said.

He spoke from the comfortable vantage point of having already received five offers from cities willing to put up at least $650,000. That's the minimum demanded by the GOP.

Miami Beach's offer of $800,000 — $650,000 in cash and $150,000 in services — topped the list. Philadelphia has proposed $750,000 and three cities $650,000 each — Houston, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

A sixth city still in the running is Chicago, scene of the 1960 GOP convention. It is expected to submit a minimum bid within two weeks.

Bliss said Republicans will require, in addition to at least $650,000 in cash or services, a city with 10,000 hotel rooms plus a hall big enough to house the convention. San Francisco paid $650,000 for the last GOP national gathering.

No action has been taken to have both the Democratic and Republican conventions held in the same city, said Bliss. But he noted the television networks are supporting such a proposal.

Year Of Faith Is Proclaimed

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI today proclaimed a "Year of Faith" for Roman Catholics to commemorate the 19th centenary of the martyrdom of St. Peter and Paul.

In a letter to all his bishops, the pontiff ordered special religious celebrations and prayers in every church, parish, seminary, religious house and Catholic home.

He announced that the celebration would start June 29, the feast day of the two apostles, and would last until June 29, 1968.

The Pope appealed to non-Catholic Christians to join in the commemoration.

He did not specify what he thought would be suitable.

Pope Paul acknowledged that the exact date of martyrdoms could not be fixed, saying they occurred in Rome during Nero's persecutions of 64-68. He said he was following the example of Pope Pius IX, "who wished the solemn commemoration of St. Peter's martyrdom to be held in the year 1967."

He called on all Roman Catholics for "a single profession of faith." He said he hoped the centenary would stimulate fuller awareness by Catholics of their faith and that they would purify and strengthen it.

"We cannot fail to know that the present time shows there is great need of this," he added.

sives, hit at base camps and fortified positions in Tay Ninh Province in successive raids from midnight until dawn.

There was no official explanation for the intensified bombing which in the past has sometimes preceded a major ground campaign. U.S. headquarters today announced the end of Operation Gadsden in C Zone and said 161 Communists had been killed since Feb. 2.

In air action over North Vietnam, American pilots kept up their assault on Communist truck convoys Tuesday for the second day. Fliers claimed 17 more supply vehicles knocked out at the Mu Gia Pass, bringing their two-day total to 103 destroyed or damaged.

About 210 U.S. fighter-bombers flew 70 missions against North Vietnam Tuesday. Pilots reported destruction of eight other trucks in a convoy 53 miles northwest of Dong Hoi, 10 cargo barges eight miles south-east of Vinh and six boxcars on a siding 37 miles southwest of Thanh Hoa.

The U.S. spokesman said the big convoy caught near the Mu Gia pass Monday and Tuesday was blocked by a landslide and the destruction of several bridges caused by earlier raids. He said a lone North Vietnamese engineer working to clear the landslide continued to operate a road grader all through the 10 hours of Monday's raids.

Special Film At Assembly Of God Church

The Rev. Ernie Eskelin of St. Petersburg, Fla., recently returned from a 35,000 mile tour of Missionary crusades in the dark Continent of Africa, will present an "unusual" color film at 7:30 Friday at the First Assembly of God Church, Sixth and Summit.

The film, "I Witness Pagan Fetish Rituals," is the only one of its kind ever to be filmed, the Rev. Eskelin said. Several attempts were made on the life of the evangelist during the filming of this ritual of 10,000 natives in a five hour dance called the "Dance of the Sourcerers."

The Rev. Eskelin will tell the story of the tribe and its customs before showing of the film. The story is approximately 20 minutes in length and the film runs some 50 minutes.

There will be no admission charge. Rev. Floyd T. Buntensch is pastor of the local church.

privilege and opportunity of serving the Chamber as your president for the past two years. It's been a pleasure to try in some small way to further the Chamber goals.

"The reason I have enjoyed this position is because Sedalia, through the years, has been good to me and my family, and I believe you can't continue to take something from a community without giving back something in return. If we are to grow and develop in Sedalia, all of us must think along these lines. I want to thank the press and the members of the board for the help and support given me as your president. Together we have made numerous accomplishments in the past two years. There could have been more, but we are always fighting the big factor involved — time!

"In reviewing the last two years, without going into detail, there have been many happy moments in this job, and there have been several disappointments, too. All things considered, I have enjoyed being your president. It is with happiness and regret that I leave this office,—happiness, because I can spend more time with my family and business, and regret, because it has been a pleasure to serve you. To the new president I pledge my support and help to make his term of office successful and fruitful."

Yates asked that there be a moment of silent prayer in respect to Harry Kull, a board member who had died since the last meeting, and who, Yates said, "was one of the real faithful and good board members, who had been on the board for the past two years."

Gary Cooper asked that people of the community be encouraged to put meeting dates on the Chamber calendar that there not be a conflict of large meetings. He also gave briefly some of the things he had been doing the past month which included working for certain legislation to benefit the community, working on industrial prospects, with the Air Base and many other things.

Owen, who is particularly interested in conventions, informed the group that conventions of a large size could never be brought to Sedalia because there was no place of adequate size to serve them. Now, he said, there is a catering service available for Convention Hall or the Agriculture Building that can serve more than 2,000 people.

Parkhurst, speaking on publicity, said that because of the great cost, the Hub would not be published as it was before but will be a good mimeographed publication out of the Chamber office. He asked that directors give any news they might have for the publication.

Yates asked that within the next ten days the two vice-presidents meet with their directors for the appointment of chairmen for their committees. He told of the classifications of the Chamber to which directors will be assigned and requested they express a preference, if they had one, on which they would like to work.

Under the first vice-president, Keating, are wholesalers and manufacturers, retail merchants membership and finance, industrial development, transportation and traffic, and public relations.

Under the second vice-president, Fitzwilliam, are agricultural and farm marketing, state, national and local affairs, governmental affairs, military affairs, conventions, and tourists and civic activities.

The annual banquet will be March 23, and Yates wants the divisions set up before that time.

Omens Favor Meeting Of Top-Level Men

WASHINGTON (AP) — Just back from Buenos Aires, Secretary of State Dean Rusk says he thinks all the omens favor the holding of a summit conference of presidents of the American nations in mid-April.

He is to report to President Johnson today.

"I think there will be one and it will be a successful one," Rusk said Tuesday night after his plane touched down at Andrews Air Force Base.

The secretary of state had been away from Washington eight days to attend a meeting of foreign ministers in Buenos Aires at which considerable attention was given the proposed meeting of the presidents two months from now.

Punta del Este, Uruguay, has been selected tentatively as the site for the gathering.

Speech, Debate Squad To Enter Neosho Tourney

The Smith-Cotton Speech and Debate Squad, under the guidance of Dan B. Curtis, director of forensics at Smith-Cotton, will travel to Neosho this week-end where they will participate in their last invitational tournament of the debate season.

The squad is reported in top-notch condition with plenty of experience and material which will benefit the squad when they meet the large Springfield and Kansas City school systems at this large annual event.

Those participating in championship debate will be Craig Cassing and Terry Winebrenner, and the team of Harry Lambirth and Terry Koehn. In regular debate will be the team of Richard Lyles and Dennis Bruns.

Individual event entries are Jill Hopkins, humorous reading; Randy Burton, humorous reading and poetry; Cindy Jennings, original oratory and girls extemporaneous speaking; Pam Mark, dramatic reading and girls extemporaneous speaking; Lloyd Knox, boys extemporaneous speaking and poetry; Craig Cassing, boys extemporaneous speaking and duet acting; Terry Koehn, boys extemporaneous speaking and original oratory; Dennis Bruns, original oratory; and Terry Winebrenner, duet acting and boys extemporaneous speaking.

This is one of the largest groups which has traveled with the debate squad and hopes are high that Smith-Cotton will rank superiorly in the sweepstakes competition.

Lumber Yard, Medical Office Are Destroyed

CAMDENTON, Mo. (AP) — Fire destroyed a lumber yard and a medical office just north of the town square early today and was threatening a nearby residential area.

The blaze was discovered in the lumber yard around 4 a. m. and quickly spread out of control to the Medical Center of Camden County, a one-story brick structure. Three physicians had offices in the building.

Spokesmen said no one was believed in either the lumber yard or medical building when the fire broke out and no injuries have been reported in battling the blaze.

Volunteer fire departments from neighboring Osage Beach and Sunrise Beach aided in fighting the fire.

There was no estimate on the loss and the cause was undetermined.

Camdenton, with a population of about 1,500 is in south central Missouri near the Lake of the Ozarks.

GM Empire Hard Hit By Tie-Up

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers summoned leaders of striking Mansfield, Ohio, Local 549 to a show-case hearing here today as General Motors' huge car-building empire was hard hit by the tieup.

At least 80,000 GM workers were marked for layoffs because of a parts shortage resulting from the wildcat strike in Ohio.

United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther set up the Detroit meeting today when the striking local failed to return to work after he told the strikers their walkout was in violation of the GM-UAW contract and of the union's constitution.

GM said a series of layoffs, to be completed by the weekend, will idle assembly lines in 22 of the firm's 23 auto production plants scattered across the nation.

His Greatness Endures

Time is the severest judge of greatness. Though the debunking school of historians performs a useful service by cutting folk heroes down to human size occasionally, the men that a nation reveres for generation after generation are usually deserving of that honor.

It is 235 years since the birth of George Washington. In our kindergartens, walls are decorated with cut-outs of hatchets and cherry trees, mythical symbols of Washington's unswerving rectitude. Older students learn that he commanded the Continental Army during the War of Independence, that he later became first president of the United States. American history majors in college may make more detailed study of his military campaigns, his contribution to the writing of the Constitution, the actual crises he faced as chief executive.

But for most of us, Washington was the man who won the Revolution, the wealthy but democratic aristocrat who lived at Mount Vernon and became the Father of His Country, the man whose birthday is an excuse for a holiday. We are content to let it go at that.

If that were all there was to it, why then should Washington be as equally respected by professional students of history? Because his greatness holds up even under the most critical examination of his life and works.

There have been abler generals in American history, more successful businessmen, more energetic and innovative presidents. The simple fact remains, however, that without Washington there would have been no Revolution, no Constitution, probably no United States as we know it today.

Washington's leadership alone virtually held together the tiny ragtag American army during the long years of the war. He was the only man respected enough by all factions to preside over the Constitutional Convention of 1787. He was the only man who towered above partisanship, the only possible choice for president of a new federal government that no one was at all sure could work.

We venerate him not only because of his place in history, however. His memory is a continuing inspiration to living men, who must face the crises and changes of their own times. Because of this, Americans 235 years from now will honor George Washington.

Senators Vote Not to Checkrein CIA

By DREW PEARSON AND JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON — On Jan. 24, 1966, the U. S. Senate in the second closed-door session since World War II voted 61 to 28 not to permit other senators except the Armed Services Committee to ride herd on the secret activities of the Central Intelligence Agency.

If that vote had been different, the country might not have been so surprised by recent disclosures that some $3 million of the taxpayers' money had been spent by CIA to subsidize various student organizations represented to the public as spontaneous youth movements organized in the spirit of American free enterprise. Investigation by other senators besides the pro-military Armed Services Committee would have disclosed this subsidy.

During the secret debate, Sen. William Fulbright, D-Ark., contended that the CIA played a more influential role in foreign policy than the State Department; therefore his Senate Foreign Relations Committee members should be informed of the CIA's activities.

Standing near Fulbright and striking his right fist into his left palm with a loud crack, Sen. Richard Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Armed Services Committee, blasted the Foreign Relations Committee as "self-serving, self-seeking."

Russell demanded that the resolution to permit the Foreign Relations Committee to participate in supervision of CIA be referred to his committee, where of course it was certain to be killed.

Vice President Humphrey, usually a liberal, ruled against his liberal colleagues. He won the day for Russell and his conservatives.

Seven years before, the Senate had also voted, 59 to 27, to defeat a proposal by Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., now Senate leader, to create a joint congressional committee to oversee the CIA. The then-Senate leader, from Texas, now President of the United States, voted against this checkrein on Central Intelligence.

Public Doesn't Know

Since other members of the Senate and the public have been denied access to the operations of Central Intelligence, this column will undertake to report on some of them — without disclosing the more delicate operations which might involve national security.

LAUREL (Miss.) LEADER-CALL: Origin of Word Goofy. — Place, aboard U. S. Naval Vessel, Brest, France.

Occasion: Two members of small boat crew attached to said vessel, one of whom was constantly complaining of the fog in the area. The other seaman nicknamed him "Foggy." One day when their boat called away for a trip, seaman one said to seaman two, "let's go Foggy," to which seaman two retorted "If I'm Foggy, you're goofy." Upon returning to the ship, the crewman to whom the epithet was directed told someone on deck, "I heard a new word today. I don't know what it means, but it wasn't a compliment."

The word spread throughout the Navy, came ashore and branched out as adjective, noun and verb, to become inserted in Webster's Unabridged Dictionary some years ago. Now it seems to have become well established as a good, solid, shirt-sleeve English word which may continue indefinitely.

The Meaning of Lent

Duke Ellington and Lent

Men have always sung about their faith. Joy inspires a song, conviction finds a chorus. Not always in the cathedral but where they lived and worked and had fellowship. The earliest Christians picked up the theme of one fourth-century saint who cried,

All life has become a song
Ploughing, we praise
Sailing, we sing!

Sensitive artists have discovered the variety of musical expression to describe the yearnings of the spirit. We thrill to the works of Bach, the Gregorian chants and the hymns of John Wesley. But the songs of the heart are not limited to a special, chosen few

In 1965, Duke Ellington gave an extraordinary concert in Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York, joining the delicate beat of his jazz style to the timeless words of the Bible.

Consider the boundless energy of a Bobby Dylan; Peter, Paul and Mary; Harry Belafonte, stirring our hearts as they perform with guitar, amplifier and drums. They startle us out of the usual patterns of church music to ponder new tones and choruses.

A rock and roll hymn, electronic anthem, a guitar solo for worshipping people? If God is our contemporary His servant may be an 18th-Century Handel or a 20th-century Ellington.

The Perils of Obesity

Stop Overeating and Start Living

By H. M. MARVIN, M.D.
Past President
American Heart Association
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dr. H. M. Marvin

If you refuse to believe what your doctor has to say on the perils of obesity, then your next best bet is to ask your insurance agent. Those moderately overweight should be prepared to pay an extra premium of about 20 per cent. If you are excessively fat, you probably won't get any insurance at all.

The disquieting fact is that the middle-aged man who is 30 per cent overweight has, for example, twice the risk of heart attack as that of his normally weighted friends of the same age. The combination of obesity with high blood pressure produces a risk about four times that of normal. Obesity also means greater likelihood of high blood pressure, elevated blood cholesterol or diabetes.

It follows that if you are seriously interested in reducing your risk of heart attack, there is no better place to begin than by shedding the excess body weight with which you may be burdened. Any dieting you undertake should be under the supervision of your physician.

Let me also emphasize that obesity is but one of the high-risk factors associated with heart attacks. All of them deserve your attention.

Like most doctors, I have encountered many hundreds of patients who have been overweight by amounts ranging from 10 pounds to 150 pounds. For many years I have tried to help these people to reduce, utilizing all the persuasiveness, knowledge, patience and encouragement available to me. There have been many failures. But some of my patients actually have been triumphant, even though greatly overweight for many years.

Now it is very easy, but not especially illuminating or helpful, to say that a person gains weight because he eats more food than his body requires. Authorities have been in agreement on that statement for years. But it is misleading in many instances to say that the fundamental cause of overweight is eating too much.

There is complete agreement that the physiological reason for an increase in body fat is eating more calories than the body will use as fuel. There are five main factors which condition the extent to which the build-up of fat occurs — age, size of body, sex, amount and kind of physical activity and type of food.

Reduced to simplest terms, however, it can be said that the person who regularly eats more food than his body requires will gain weight, while one who eats less than his body requires will lose weight.

It is also important to remember that caloric needs of the body decrease slowly but steadily as one grows older. Consequently, if a person eats the same number of calories and does the same amount of exercise year after year, his weight will increase slowly.

What can be done?

My suggestion is that the individual start by dismissing many of the age-old misconceptions surrounding obesity. Put aside the idea that obesity is inherited and nothing can be done about it. Drop the false ideas that it is a natural part of growing older, that it results from a disturbance of the endocrine glands, and that to be fat is to be stronger and healthier. Get rid of the notion that exercise alone will keep weight down.

Those who really wish to reduce their weight should keep these basic facts in mind:

Whenever the food provides less energy than the body needs, it will use as its fuel the fat stored on the body.

Ideally, the calories supplied by food each day should be less than the body requires. If this is impossible, the weekly total should be less. Eat less while keeping exercise constant, or

Recommends Sanity Check For Everybody These Days

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the problems everyone has to solve today is whether the world is getting balmer—or you are.

The best way is to make a periodic checkup on yourself. To determine whether you have retained or lost your marbles, figure out your own sanity quotient periodically.

How can you do this? Quite simply.

For example, here is a sample quiz by which you can rate yourself:

Are you able to sit down and reason with your own children intelligently, thus helping them to improve their ways?

If you had it to do all over again, would you be perfectly willing to relive your live exactly as you have up until now?

Can you smile tolerantly when one of the guys you are playing golf with starts jabbering just as you try a game-winning putt on the 18th hole?

When your neighbor buys a new car more expensive than the one you own, does it make you feel warm all over because someone you know is getting ahead?

Are you pleased if, while preparing a backyard cookout, one of the guests steps forward with a suggestion on how to make the charcoal fire burn better?

Should someone offer to fix a traffic ticket for you, would you become righteously indignant because you feel the law ought to take its course in such matters?

After filling out your income tax forms each year, do you have the quiet satisfaction of someone who has done a good hard honest job?

Do you make it a policy to pay up all your bills at least a week ahead of time to avoid any possible confusion?

Are you the kind of fellow who refuses to bet on a sure thing because you think it's unfair to take money from suckers?

Are you the type of husband about whom other wives say to their own mates, "Why can't you be more like him?"

Do you make it a point never to lose your temper, no matter what the provocation?

When you decide to give up a bad habit, such as smoking too much or cussing out the government, can you do it easily and without a single relapse?

Well, now let's look at the box score.

If the answer to all the foregoing questions was "yes," then here eat the same amount while exercising more.

It is not necessary or even desirable to lose weight rapidly; any amount from a half-pound to two pounds a week is satisfactory.

"Crash diets" should be avoided, except possibly to lose three or four pounds.

Persistence — rigid and unwavering — is the master word.

Are you still with me? If so, see your doctor and map out a program which will enable you either to maintain normal weight or to bring your weight down to normal. You'll be happier and healthier. You'll feel better. And the chances are that you'll live a lot longer.

(NEXT: Exercise Regularly.)

is no doubt that you are an unusual case. You are theoretically 100 per cent normal.

That means you are abnormally normal, the kind of a smug bore who drives everyone else around him out of their minds.

misses the nine spot, he starts by playing dummy's ace and queen. West shows out and South is able to pick up the jack with no worries."

Jim: "I recognize the hand all right. Isn't this the famous hand where Harry Fishbein dropped the nine of spades under dummy's ace? This gave declarer two ways to finesse against the jack. In addition, the play made it look as if West would be more likely to hold four trumps, so West led a trump back to his king at trick two and East made his jack. Did Harry really have the distinction to be the first to make that play?"

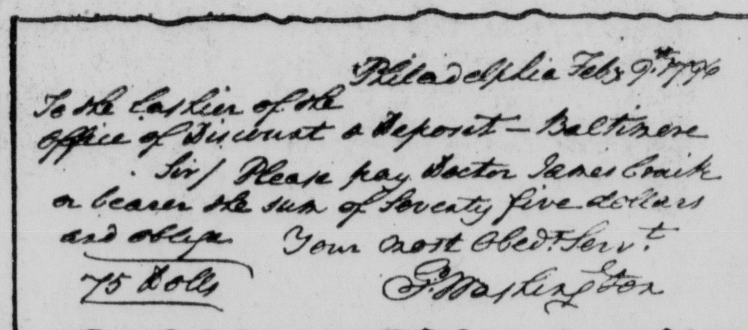

Oswald: "I can't state categorically that someone else did not make it before Harry did. I can assure you that I was not the first to make the play and that no other old-time expert has claimed to be first."

Jim: "Then you do give Harry full credit?"

Oswald: "I certainly do. It is interesting to realize that the play of cards has improved so much in the 40 years of contract that many plays that are commonplace today were almost unknown in the early days of the game."

Jim: "Do you know if any other player has sole credit for thinking of a play?"

Oswald: "There is the Deschappelles coup. It is named after the great French whist player Deschappelles but I, for one, doubt if he invented it. Then there is the Bath coup but that is named for the town of Bath, England."

IT LOOKS GOOD, but this supposed Washington note is actually a fake by Robert Spring, 19th century forger who specialized in Washington bank checks dated between 1794 and 1799. Spring's habit of writing the first president's signature undersized gives his work away.

tary discharges following the Revolution, for example, and you can buy one specimen or other of his penmanship for relatively little money."

Washington's handwriting changed as the years passed. The signature of the teen-age blueblood is quite different from that of the elderly statesman.

"But if you see a letter signed 'George Washington,' it's probably a forgery," Hamilton says. Except on some legal documents the first president always signed his name "Go: Washington."

You're probably looking at a fake if you see a Washington Letter supposedly written on parchment, too. Hamilton says it's more likely the document was originally someone's lampshade.

The autograph expert says forgeries usually are on odd scraps of paper rather than full sheets. This is because, in order to secure genuinely old paper, fakers often tear blank pages out of books published long ago. Forgeries by Cooley are noted for their rounded corners and Palmer-style penmanship.

If you think you've got a genuine Washington autograph, Hamilton suggests you have it verified by an expert. He will know whether it's written on the sort of paper used in Revolutionary times; whether the ink is genuine; the style of writing consistent, etc.

"Time and time again, I have seen even supposedly well-informed people fooled completely and cheated out of goodly amounts of money," he says.

Hamilton, who in his career has helped trap and punish several autograph embezzlers, has encountered many a fake letter supposedly penned by Patrick Henry, Mark Twain, Lord Byron, Mary Baker Eddy and others — but forged Washingtons are the biggest drug on the autograph market.

Prolific President

Washington Signatures Abound

By JERRY KLEIN
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

If you've always wanted to have something signed by George Washington, it's not a financial impossibility — but be careful.

"Papers signed by Washington are among the most common of all presidential documents. But beware, because they're also among the most commonly forged."

So says a New York expert in autographs who recently sold just a few lines of Washington's handwriting, cut out of an old document, for $1,500. (Other samples of the general's penmanship sell for tiny fractions of that.)

"The forger is never idle," cautions the expert, Charles Hamilton. Fake Washington signatures were a long-time specialty of two forgers who had a special fondness for imitating the general's handwriting: Robert Spring and Joseph Cooley.

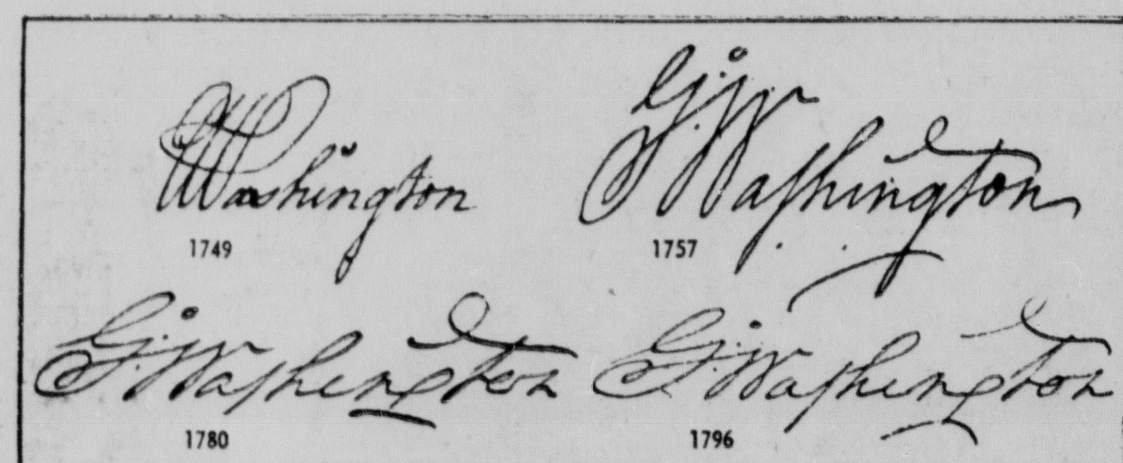

Eventually both were caught. But while their pens were active, these two flooded the country with fake autographs, not only of Washington but of Benjamin Franklin and others as well.

Spring, who pursued his infamous career during the 19th century, was one of America's most prolific forgers. He especially liked to fake Washington Bank checks dated in the years 1794 to 1799. Hamilton says Spring had the habit of writing Washington's name smaller than the general's genuine signature to conceal the trickery. But today this helps experts to spot the flim-flam.

More recently, Cooley made a career of forging Washington's name and passing the results off as genuine. Sometimes his work was good enough to confuse even experts who should have known better.

"Owning a genuine signature of George Washington is far from impossible," Hamilton says. "The general wrote thousands of things, as there were no typewriters in his day. He also signed thousands of mili-

INCREASINGLY BOLD, Washington's signature also became less legible with age. It was neat and decorative in 1749, at 17. But it soon acquired the scrawl characteristic of the general-in-chief (1780) and the chief executive (1796).

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: Regarding the letter from the wife who felt "left out" because her husband refused to let her see him without his partial plate:

Our wonderful father used a hair-darkener for years. He kept the bottle hidden in his tackle box on the closet shelf. Mother knew it and so did us kids, but we wouldn't have let on for anything in the world. We allowed Father to keep his "secret" because to have done otherwise would have been cruel.

Dear Children: Somebody put some solid ideas into your heads and I'll bet it was your mother. One of the most admirable of all traits is to be in the know and not have to advertise it.

Dear Ann Landers: I am 23 and have been going with an attractive girl who is 20. A few weeks ago she threw a half-eaten ice cream cone out of the car into the street. I pulled over to the curb, got out, scooped up the mess and put it in the nearest trash container. She said I must be some kind of a nut.

On our next date she threw a candy wrapper out the car window. Again I stopped, picked it up and kept it in the glove compartment. She called me a "prissy old maid."

Last night she threw a malted milk container into the street. I told her THIS time SHE was going to pick it up. She got mad, said I was a jerk and refused. I picked up the container and drove her home. She got out of the car, and slammed the door in my face.

This morning I received a telegram saying that unless I sent a wire of apology she would never speak to me again. Am I petty and domineering as she insists?—MR. CLEAN.

Dear Mr.: The girl sounds immature and plenty sloppy. Some cities fine litterbugs as much as $50 for such antics.

You owe her no apology. And think twice before you accept hers. She sounds like bad news.

Before my husband goes to work he stops off at his mother's house for coffee and a bagel. If he isn't there by 8:45 she calls up and says "Is Irving sick?"

On his way home from work he stops at his mother's again. She gives him a bowl of chicken soup or some chopped herring—just enough to spoil his appetite for MY supper.

Before he goes to bed he telephones his mother to say good night. If he doesn't call her by 11:00 she calls and asks, "Is Irving all right?"

Now, from American Motors, the car that wasn't there.

This may well be the most important news to come out of Detroit this year.

A major gap has developed in today's automobile market—a gap that no American-built car is filling.

Because this gap exists, over 1,000,000 car buyers a year have not been able to get the car they wanted: a car for the American motorist at a list price competitive to foreign imports.

Today, American Motors' new management and nearly 2,500 American Motors/Rambler Dealers are filling that gap.

As of today, we are limiting future changes in our Rambler American line to essential changes that will further enhance the safety and reliability of these cars.

This will save us millions of dollars—and we and our dealers are passing the savings along to you now. This means that the Rambler American 220 two-door sedan that yesterday listed at $2,073 now lists at $1,839. It means that today, your American Motors/Rambler Dealer has put new price stickers on all nine Rambler American models.

For years, Rambler American has been the best value in an American automobile. Today, priced competitive to imported cars, it is the best automobile value in the world.

This week on television, we promised you exciting news from American Motors.

This is only the beginning.

Tricky Suit In Marriage Case Heard

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — A German beauty claims that an American millionaire she met at a nudist colony reneged on promises to marry her. He contends he only leased her from her husband.

Who is right must be decided by a U.S. District Court jury of seven men and five women hearing a case involving a $2.5-million breach of promise suit filed by Beate Leber.

Mrs. Leber, 30, claims she left her husband, Ralph Leber of Heidelberg, Germany, in 1965 to marry William Brown, 63, a wealthy Arizona rancher and sports car racing buff.

Brown, through his attorney, said he leased the shapely, burn-haired Mrs. Leber for $3,000 a month, but that the agreement with the husband made no mention of marriage.

Brown, who said he was one of the original investors with Henry Luce in Time magazine, estimated his fortune Tuesday at $5.6 million. He claims he is the victim of a conspiracy to defraud him.

The trial opened Tuesday before U.S. Dist. Judge John C. Bowen and centered around a series of letters Brown allegedly wrote to the Lebers.

They trace the relationship between Brown and the Lebers from the time they first met at a nudist resort on the Isle of Sylt in northern Germany.

The letters were introduced as evidence by Ray Hayes, attorney for Mrs. Leber, and were read aloud by Brown from the witness stand.

The letters recounted how the Lebers spent about a month with Brown on his yacht, in his New York apartment and later on his ranch in Arizona, and that Brown sent the money for the Lebers to fly from Germany to the Bahamas to join him on the yacht.

Brown, who lists his home address as Pittsburgh, Pa., follows the grand prix sports car racing circuit in Europe.

Other testimony Tuesday disclosed that Brown and Mrs. Leber traveled widely in Europe, at times being joined by her husband.

Mrs. Leber claims Brown proposed marriage twice.

During the early months of the friendship between the Lebers and Brown, Mrs. Leber posed for Brown in the nude for several photographs, Brown said.

Brown's attorney, Norman Hull, said his client and Mrs. Leber had numerous sexual relations, and were encouraged by her husband. The attorney said she came to Arizona once by herself to stay with Brown.

Hayes, in his opening statement, said Brown had helped Mrs. Leber arrange a Mexico divorce from her husband. At the time, he said, Brown agreed to pay her husband $39,000 at a rate of $3,000 per month.

The trial resumes Thursday morning when Brown will return to the stand.

100-Mile Rail Line Is Vital To North Effort

WASHINGTON (AP) — North Vietnam relies heavily for supplies on a 100-mile rail line from Red China which has withstood repeated U.S. bombing attacks, Pentagon sources report.

The Communists received thousands of tons of Soviet-made aircraft and weapons over the railroad, extending north-eastward from Hanoi into China, and protect it with 1,100 anti-aircraft guns.

Because the railroad is a vital supply link with other Communist countries, Hanoi now is seeking to enhance its capability by converting the line from narrow gauge to China's standard gauge.

Over the railroad passes what Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara calls the "high-value" war items supplied by the Soviets — MIG fighters, surface-to-air missiles, helicopters and anti-aircraft guns.

It also brings large amounts of less expensive goods — the Chinese-supplied mortars and small cannon ammunition.

Despite hundreds of air attacks against the line, sources say the strip has never been out of service for any extended period.

Carthage Dentist Dies At Age 89

CARTHAGE, Mo. (AP)—Dr. A.B. McBride, 89, a dentist since 1902, died Tuesday at his home.

McBride, one of the oldest working dentists in Missouri, had been ill since November. He was graduated from the Western Dental College at Kansas City in 1902 and practiced in his home town of Edina until he came to Carthage in 1909.

Survivors include the widow, Ruth; a sister, Mrs. Sue Krueger of Edina; and two brothers, Virgil McBride of Green City and C.C. McBride of Oklahoma City.

Labor Party Retains All Its Control

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP) — Jamaica's Labor party easily retained control of the government in the general election Tuesday, but the voting marked the end of a political era for the young island nation in the Caribbean.

Returns Tuesday night gave the generally conservative Laborites at least 31 of the 53 seats in Parliament to 19 for the People's National party. A communications breakdown delayed returns for the other three seats. The Laborites had 26 of the 45 seats in the old Parliament.

The results brought down the curtain on a sometimes bloody and violent political period dominated by two men: Laborite Prime Minister Sir William Alexander Bustamante, 84 and ailing, and his first cousin, Norman Washington Manley of the People's party, who will be 74 next July 4.

The two men forged Jamaica's fight for independence from the British, finally achieved in 1962. Bustamante's announcement in January that he would retire precipitated the election.

The election had appeared to offer Manley a good chance — perhaps his last — at the premiership he held from 1955 to 1962. But the defeat was one of the most lopsided his party had suffered in five ballot tests with the Labor party since 1944, the year universal adult suffrage was instituted.

Despite the sharp setback, the gray-haired, blue-eyed old man told newsmen in a steely tone he was not yet through with politics and refused to concede defeat.

Nearly blind and barely able to get about, Bustamante cheerfully greeted his vigorous 55-year-old successor, acting Prime Minister Donald Sangster, at the prime minister's residence.

operating table of the emergency room.

Missourians Included In Honors

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP) — Hundreds of persons, schools, organizations, labor unions and businesses were honored Tuesday by the Freedoms Foundation for things they have written, said or done to further the American way of life.

Highest honor went posthumously to Pfc. Hiram D. Strickland of Graham, N.C., who was killed in action Feb. 1, 1966. He was cited for a letter he wrote to his parents and three sisters in which he said he might be heading for death in battle.

"Don't mourn me, mother, for I'm happy I died fighting my country's enemies," he wrote.

The George Washington Award, which includes a check for $5,000 is to be accepted by his parents today.

School In Tent Has Few Advantages

CALIPATRIA, Calif. (AP) — What's it like to go to high school in a tent?

On the California desert, it's breezy.

Winter winds are obviously going to be a problem for the 325 students of the Calipatria Unified High School District — or "Calipat" as it's called.

Come late May, desert heat will take over. The canvas classrooms will become portable steam baths.

How did the youngsters of this Imperial Valley farming community get into such a predicament?

It began when the high school's main building — a two-story frame and stucco structure — was ruled unsafe in the event of an earthquake. Then, Feb. 14 a $1.3-million bond issue to rectify the situation failed by 27 votes.

District trustees — advised they would be personally liable for damages if an earthquake should hit — ordered the building evacuated.

State aid may produce portable classroom buildings eventually, but right now tents are the answer. Ten of them were leased from a Los Angeles firm for $5,300. These were set up Monday. The first classes moved in Tuesday.

"I don't like it too much," said Delia Wallis, 17, a senior studying journalism. "You don't know whether to take off your coat or not. The tents are drafty at the bottom and hot at the top."

A carnival atmosphere prevailed outside the classes. But not so inside the tents.

Mary Sherry, an English teacher, said of the students:

"At first they were so intense that we thought their feelings were hurt about moving out of the main building. But it was just that they were trying hard not to goof off."

"We think it is something we are going to have to put up with and we are going to do the best we can," said Judy Hillock.

Miss Hillock, a 15-year-old sophomore, was apprehensive about the approach of summer, however.

"The sun beat down on the tents yesterday until they got very warm," she said.

ing Freedom Safeguards America."

Patterson, 2102 N. Rogers, honor certificate award for essay, "Soldiers Never Die." Springfield public schools, principal school award.

Washington Honored, Johnson Rebuked

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Havana radio commended George Washington on his birthday today, then knocked the present U.S. administration.

"Today," said the broadcast monitored in Miami, "the Cuban people pay tribute to George Washington's memory and salute in his person the ideals which . . . unfortunately do not inspire the men now ruling the federal government."

Washington's Birthday, even before the Fidel Castro regime, customarily got some degree of observance in Cuba.

Work For Knowledge On Mishap

By JIM STROTHMAN
AP Aerospace Writer

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Two top space agency officials meet in all-day sessions with specialists here today to hear interim findings from work panels probing to learn what caused the Apollo 1 fire.

Dr. Robert C. Seamans, deputy administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and Dr. George E. Mueller, NASA associate administrator for manned space flight, were to hear the status reports behind closed doors.

A public report on the interim findings, if one is made public, was not expected until later in the week, after Seamans returns to Washington to brief NASA Administrator James Webb and congressional leaders.

Thursday Mueller and other Apollo program representatives are to make a presentation to Seamans, in the presence of the investigating board, on the impact of the Apollo 1 tragedy on future planning.

Mueller is to list plans that might still permit a manned Apollo launching this year, perhaps as early as August or September.

Also under consideration today and Thursday will be whether NASA should substitute a two-gas mixture for the pure-oxygen Apollo breathing system and whether to provide the craft with a quick-opening hatch.

The $40-million Apollo 1 cabin section — gutted by the Jan. 27 fire that killed Air Force Lt. Col. Virgil I. Grissom and Edward H. White II and Navy Lt. Cmdr. Roger B. Chaffee — is in a Cape hangar being disassembled piece-by-piece in a methodical search for clues.

Many Jobs Disappear

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — The Department of Employment Security reported 36,800 jobs disappeared in Missouri after the Christmas rush, but employment still ran 42,200 higher than in January of 1966.

Most of the disappearing jobs were in trade—18,200—and construction—6,800.

Toll Road Discussed By Governors

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Gov. Robert Docking of Kansas and Gov. Warren E. Hearnes of Missouri have sounded each other out on bi-state projects, particularly a statewide toll road from Kansas City south.

In a news conference held after their 1½-hour private discussion Tuesday in Kansas City, Docking held out little hope for a jointly built turnpike, and Hearnes declined to comment on its possibilities.

"It would be very beneficial," said Hearnes, "but we would have to pass legislation first."

Toll road bills are under consideration in both state legislatures. Kansas has completed a feasibility study of a projected turnpike on its side of the line, and Missouri has talked about another on its side.

Docking and Hearnes also said they discussed plans to set up a bi-state air pollution compact, largely for the Kansas City area which sprawls across both sides of the state line.

"Missouri has offered to Kansas a suggested draft on air pollution," Hearnes said.

"It is speculative at this time," Docking told newsmen. Hearnes added, "I think this is something the states can handle without federal intervention. It is one place the states can work out a solution. If they can't, then the federal government will step in."

Docking said he and Hearnes brought up the possibility of a joint new bridge for U.S. 36 across the Missouri River at St. Joseph.

Legislative leaders of both states took part in the governors' conference. Rex Whitton, retired federal highway administrator, also attended. Others present were John Montgomery, Junction City, Kan., chairman of the Kansas Highway Commission, and Jack Stapleton of Stanberry, Mo., chairman of the Missouri Highway Commission.

217,000 Cars Called Back By Ford Motors

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. is calling 217,000 of its 1966 and 1967 model cars into service shops for inspection of possible power brake faults.

The power-assist portion of the brake systems on some of the cars may fail in cold weather after a prolonged period of parking, causing an increase in the pressure needed to push down the brake pedal and stop the car, Ford said.

The company also said steering wheel assemblies will be replaced in 5,900 of the recalled vehicles, all new Thunderbirds equipped with automatic speed-control devices.

Besides Thunderbirds, the recall for possible brake problems include Falcons, Fairlanes, Comets, Mustangs and Cougars. The vehicles are 1966 and 1967 models equipped with power brakes.

Those cars without power brakes, as well as Lincoln Continentals, standard-size Fords and Mercurys with power brakes, are not affected, the company said.

Ford said Tuesday that recent blizzard conditions in the northern United States and Canada aggravated the power-brake problem.

YOU MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS AND NOT KNOW IT

Fidgeting, nose-picking, a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms. . . . ugly parasites that medical experts say infect 1 out of every 3 persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it. To get rid of Pin-Worms, they must be killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with dangerous, highly contagious Pin-Worms which infect entire families. Get genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge—small, easy-to-take tablets—special sizes for children and adults.

Committee Tries Again To Agree

WASHINGTON (AP) — With one member insisting that Adam Clayton Powell be expelled from Congress, a House committee tries again today to reach unanimous agreement on lesser punishment of severe censure plus pay penalties.

Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., admitted after all-day sessions Tuesday that the nine-member committee's failure to conclude its deliberations was due to his desire to achieve unanimity on the recommendation which must go to the House Thursday night.

Celler said "we may have to do some compromising," and added "I will bend over backward to get a unanimous report."

The committee plans to stay in session today until it concludes its work.

Rep. Claude D. Pepper, D-Fla., was reported the major obstacle to unanimity, contending within and outside the committee that Powell's alleged official misconduct is serious enough to warrant his expulsion from the House.

Members of the committee who tend to favor censure rather than expulsion argue that expelling Powell would make him a martyr and that he would quickly be returned to the House in the special election that would take place to fill his vacant seat.

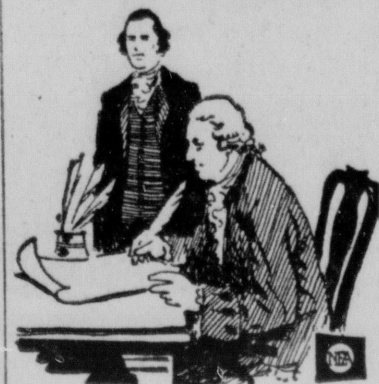

The committee's ranking Republican, Rep. Arch A. Moore of West Virginia, said agreement had been reached on some major issues before the committee.

One of these is believed to be that Powell should be seated before being punished or expelled. Members are understood to be anxious to avoid a possible court challenge of any move to exclude Powell, who apparently meets age, citizenship and in-habitancy requirements of the Constitution.

Exclusion before Powell is seated would require only majority approval. Expulsion after his seating would require two-thirds approval.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The first book registered for copyright in the United States was The Philadelphia Spelling Book by John Barry, says The World Almanac. The book was registered on June 9, 1790, just ten days after President Washington signed the first U.S. copyright law. At that time, the law applied only to maps, charts and books.

Johnson Keeps Tabs On Official Remarks

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson keeps tabs on what top federal officials tell newsmen.

Press secretary George Christian said Tuesday that White House assistants tell him daily about significant press contacts, and outside officials "send in such information as they think I may need."

When Christian believes the information is pertinent or informative, he sends Johnson a memo, he said.

Christian said the system is a good idea, that it keeps him informed about what reporters are asking and that he inherited it from predecessor Bill D. Moyers.

severely, he ought to be expelled."

The current plan by supporters of the censure move is to combine the seating censure and all penalties into one resolution which would then require a simple majority for adoption. The matter is expected to come before the House next Tuesday.

One likely part of Powell's punishment is expected to be a plan to withhold from his salary some $35,000 in government funds which he is alleged to have converted to his own use.

Griffith Show Is A Success

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Andy Griffith, Don Knotts and Ernie Ford can draw all they want to, and kick dirt and proclaim that they are country bumpkins.

What they are is a trio of very professional performers who work delightfully together. Tuesday night's "Andy Griffiths' Uptown-Downtown Show," an hour special, was unpretentious and silky smooth.

The star joked a lot, sang a bit. One comedy sketch was pretty funny. There were the inevitable rock 'n' roll numbers by a young guitar-playing group.

Griffith steered pretty clear of his weekly sheriff's character. The high point of the show for this viewer came when he did one of his back-country literary lectures that started with an explanation of how Confucius struck it rich by inventing fortune cookies and somehow wound up with the revelation that Shakespeare didn't do a very good job of mowing his lawn.

The hour was as relaxing and friendly as a neighborly visit.

ABC, in the first announcement of a new program for next season, will replace its long-running "Combat" series on Tuesday nights with another war series. The new one is called "Garrison's Guerrillas" and centers on the military exploits of a squad recruited from American prisons.

Heading the cast will be Ron Harper, an attractive young actor who has turned up successively in "87th Precinct," "Wendy and Me," and "The Jean Arthur Show." Each lasted, at the outside, one season.

ABC is also committed to a series called "Off to See the Wizard," a sort of anthology from a major film studio that will consist of new material and some old films. The network also has picked up an off-beat Western series starring Walter Brennan.

For the second weekend in a row, NBC will produce two editions of "Meet the Press." The regular half-hour show—1-1:30 p.m. EST—Sunday will be an interview with Gen. Earl G.

Will Probe Flash Fire In Capsule

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special House team will probe the Jan. 27 fire that killed three U.S. astronauts after finding "a remarkable number of similarities" between the blaze and a later fire that fatally burned two airmen.

Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., of the House Armed Services Committee ordered the investigation Tuesday after receiving a report that safety procedures were inadequate in tests at Brooks Air Force Base, Tex., where the airmen received fatal burns four days after the astronauts perished in their space capsule at Cape Kennedy, Fla.

An investigative subcommittee of Rep. Samuel S. Stratton, D-N.Y., and Rep. Durward G. Hall, R-Mo., reported Brooks officials didn't realize the extent of the danger of fire in a pure oxygen atmosphere. The capsules in both accidents were filled with pure oxygen.

The two said after an investigation at Brooks that foam rubber sponges were taken into the capsule despite a report officials there had received showing sponge material burns 60 times faster in oxygen than in air.

The congressmen also found

THE SEDALIA DEMOCRAT—Sedalia, Mo., Wed., Feb. 22, '67 7

that no one was watching outside the capsule in which A2C. William F. Bartley Jr. and A3C. Richard G. Harmon were burned Dec. 31. And the report noted there was no television monitor on the capsule.

The investigators also observed there were no carbon dioxide fire extinguishers outside the capsule. They concluded the airmen apparently had not been given instructions on use of two such extinguishers inside.

Their report found "a remarkable number of similarities" between the two fires.

Air Force Lt. Cols. Virgil I. Grissom and Edward H. White II and Navy Lt. Cmdr. Roger B.

Chaffee perished when a fire flashed through their spacecraft a sit rested atop its rocket during tests.

The subcommittee said there were some fire prevention measures in use at the Brooks tests, but added: "Nevertheless, our inquiry suggests that these procedures in light of what developed, not only at Brooks but also at Cape Kennedy, were in fact inadequate."

Even Films Made Outside US Can Win

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "At least," said Gregory Peck as the Oscar nominations were announced Monday, "we can no longer be accused of chauvinism."

Webster's defines chauvinism as "vainglorious or exaggerated patriotism."

There was a time when the Academy Awards seemed to be a local monopoly, but that time is past. The academy voters are now prepared to reward excellence in films wherever they are made, and in whatever language.

Acting awards for foreign-language films are not entirely new; Sophia Loren won the big prize in 1961 for playing "Two Women" in Italian. This year two actresses are nominated for non-English performances: Anouk Aimee (French) for "A Man and a Woman" and Ida Kaminska (Czech) for "The Shop on Main Street." Oddly, the latter film won as best foreign-language picture last year, having been released in 1966, it is now eligible in other categories.

Otherwise the Oscars should be subtitled, "the British are coming, the British are coming."

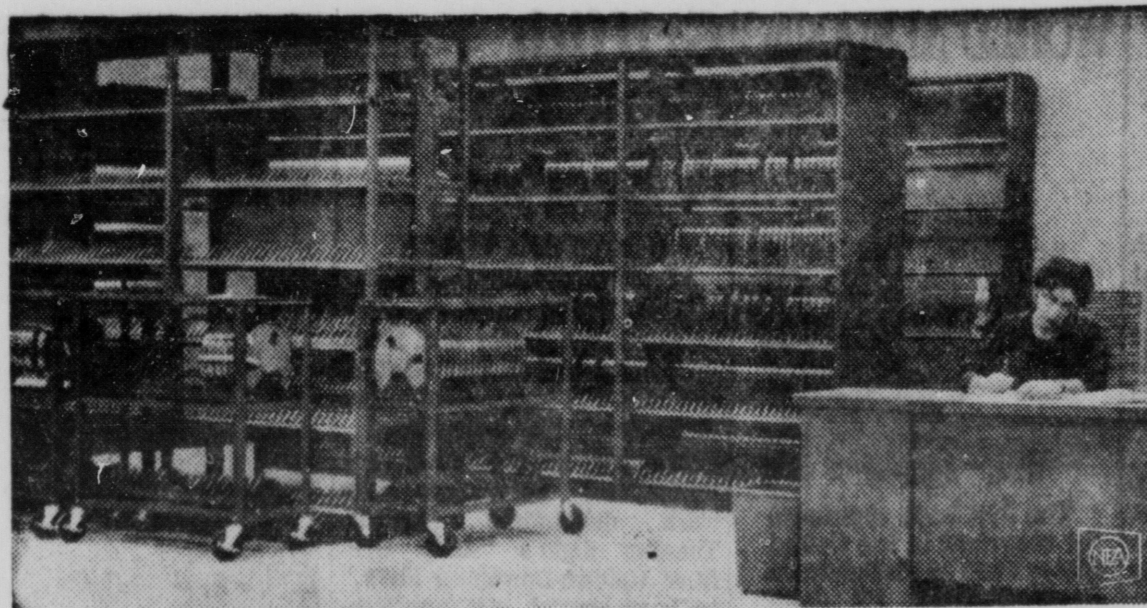

Not only are they coming, they're arriving in pairs. Witness Vanessa Redgrave ("Morning") and Lynn Redgrave ("Georgy Girl").

The Japanese are represented, too. The single-named Mako was nominated as best support actor for "The Sand Pebbles," and Toshiro Maysuzumi was named for his score of "The Bible."

The nominations brought few eyebrow-raisers. One could question whether Walter Matthau actually belonged in the supporting-actor category for "The Fortune Cookie." His role seemed equal to and perhaps greater than that of the star, Jack Lemmon.

Also it might be questioned whether Segal and Sandy Dennis are really supporting players in "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" They share almost as much footage as the stars, Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor.

Tri-City Country Club Plans New Club

The Tri-City Country Club held its annual meeting on Monday, Feb. 18 at the grade school in Concordia with 85 members attending. Following a report by Leslie Kueck, secretary-treasurer, a report was presented by the Auditing Committee, consisting of Gene Rohman, Concordia, and Charles Berry, Sweet Springs.

The president, Dr. Forrest E. Long, Sweet Springs, outlined progress on the building of the clubhouse and pool. He stated that, after many preliminary board meetings to consider possible plans and architectural direction, unanimous Board approval directed that a contract be negotiated with Sammons and Buller, architects of Sedalia who will coordinate plans for the clubhouse and pool. This negotiation is now in progress.

Dr. Long reported that arrangements are proceeding satisfactorily with Robert Bushner, County Director of the Farmers Home Administration, for a government loan to finance the building of the clubhouse and pool.

Dr. Herbert King, Chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee, reported on plans for completing the golf course which has been graded and seeded. Markers for the hole course are being secured and will be installed after spring mowing. Dr. King also reported that the road base has been cleared so that a main road in the grounds can be completed.

Dr. Long opened the meeting to questions from the floor. Much interest was evident in the progress on plans for the clubhouse and pool. As soon as drawings are complete and loan approval secured, a building schedule can be completed.

Three members were elected to the Board of Directors. They are Norman Benman, Leland Carter and Lester Vogelsmeier. Each of these directors was elected for three years, after having served a one-year term for 1966-67. Edgar Bredehoeft and Richard Wall served as tellers. The new officers for the club for 1967-68 will be elected by the Board of Directors at their next meeting.

By vote of the membership, the constitutional limit of club membership was raised to 112. Fred White, Membership Chairman, then presented the names of 11 new members to be admitted from the waiting list.

Refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Benman and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harrison. Mrs. Lester Vogelsmeier and Mrs. Carl H. Halter were in charge of registration at the door.

Aged Dentist Dies

CARTHAGE, Mo. (AP) — Dr. A. B. McBride, one of the oldest working dentists in Missouri, died Tuesday at the age of 89 at his home. He had been seriously ill since November.

He was graduated from the Western Dental College at Kansas City in 1902. He practiced in his home town of Edina, Mo. until 1909 when he came to Carthage.

Dr. McBride's widow, Ruth, two brothers, C. C. McBride of Oklahoma City and Virgil McBride of Green City, Mo., and a sister, Mrs. Sue Krueger, of Edina, survive.

Chamber Has Rental Service For Community

The Sedalia Chamber of Commerce provides a service for people of the community who have rental property and for those wanting to rent houses and apartments. There is no charge for this service for which they keep a file of addresses of the property and the accommodations, but there is one obligation that those wanting to rent their property have. That is to call the Chamber office and tell them when the property has been rented.

The Chamber asks that this do not particularly for its own benefit but for those seeking housing, and it should mean something to those renting, as well. When the Chamber is notified that a place has been rented they take it from the file and keep it until they are called and asked to put it back in when a vacancy again occurs. This saves the people seeking a place to live from making unnecessary calls to places listed only to find they have already been rented. It seems it would be a bother, too, to those with property to rent to be answering the door only to have to tell prospective renters there is no vacancy.

It would be so simple to cooperate with this service of the Chamber by calling and asking that the card be taken out until further notice and thus keep the files up to date.

The service of the Chamber is for rental property only. It does not deal in any way with property for sale.

Douglas Is Still Man Of Challenge

NEW YORK (AP) — Paul Douglas wasn't afraid of controversy when he was U.S. senator from Illinois and he isn't afraid of it now that he's "just a schoolteacher" again.

"Argue with me, play the devil's advocate," the silver-haired economist-statesman shouted at his class of 20 at the New School for Social Research Tuesday night. He pounded on the birch-topped table in front of him so hard that all eight of the tables pushed together for the seminar shook and students jumped up in alarm.

Then there was a burst of laughter, in which Douglas joined, and a curly-haired man of about 35 took up the challenge.

The former senator, defeated by Republican Charles Percy last November, had upheld the current government spending for welfare and foreign aid and asked: "Would someone come forward and defend the conservative cause?"

To which the "devil's advocate" replied "by increasing the deficit for welfare spending, we are reducing the incentive for private enterprise to increase the profits which would eventually filter down to these people (on welfare)."

The student who defended the conservative cause declined to give his identity for publication. Douglas, getting up to pace the room, snapped: "We've waited for a long time for that and it hasn't happened yet."

Fingering his blue and black striped tie, the former senator went on: "To be a liberal, you don't have to be a wastrel," he told the class. "It's no virtue to waste money."

Sitting, pounding, pacing, the veteran of 18 years in the Senate recounted his own efforts over that time to pare waste from the federal budget.

"The place where the waste really exists is the military," he said, pouring out a collection of gadgets on the table as the class crowded around to look.

"This is an aluminum slug," he said of one item. "I paid 50 cents for it in Washington; the Air Force paid $10."

"Look at these lamp sockets — 25 cents apiece. The Navy paid $21.40 each for over 5,000 of them."

Chuckling, the 74-year-old Democrat said a demonstration like this helped him win the Illinois seat in 1960 since he was able to charge that the Republican administration was not all that good at saving money.

After President John F. Kennedy was elected and appointed Robert S. McNamara secretary of defense, Douglas said he wrote a letter pointing out how the new man could save $3 billion a year by instituting competitive bidding on these and other items.

"This proved to be most conservative," Douglas said. "He's now saving over $6 billion without cutting firepower."

Check Over Treasures

MOSCOW (AP) — The chairman and the jewelry department chief of Sotheby's auction house, Peter Wilson and Graham Llewellyn, have arrived here to look at Russian art treasures and tsarist gems, gold and silver and rich carpets for possible sale in London or its New York affiliate, the Parke-Bernet Galleries.

Budget Support Drops

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — American financial support for Jordan's budget has dropped from 50 to 24 per cent in six years, according to Joseph Wheeler, director of the Amman office of the U.S. Agency for International Development. He attributed this to "the extremely high rate of per capita economic growth" in Jordan.

Simple Answers To Washington Myths

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Ask a first grade pupil why George Washington cut down the cherry tree and you'll get an answer that's simple and to the point.

Red Bridge elementary school first graders asked the question Tuesday. Here are some replies:

Jimmy Hamilton — He liked cherries.

Robert Anthony — He wanted to put a flagpole in its place.

Jeffrey Morgan — He liked to walk over trees that had been chopped down.

David Anderson — The cherries were rotten.

Steven Porter — He wanted to build a city.

Paul Erwin — He liked to chop trees.

Obstacle To Treaty Is Made Public

GENEVA (AP) — The United States and the Soviet Union have told the European Common Market nations they can't police their own compliance with the proposed treaty to halt the spread of nuclear weapons.

Qualified sources at the 17-nation disarmament conference said this has emerged as one of the main obstacles to a treaty.

West Germany and Italy — supported behind the scenes by France — want supervision on their soil to be carried out by the six-nation European Atomic Energy Association — Euratom.

The Soviet Union has denounced this as an attempt at "self-inspection". American negotiators seem to have accepted the Soviet view.

In Soviet-American talks in New York over the past three months, the two nuclear superpowers agreed that the only acceptable controlling body was the 95-nation International Atomic Energy Agency — IAEA — based in Vienna.

When the disarmament talks resumed Tuesday following a six-month recess, U.S. delegate William C. Foster told newsmen "controls should be carried out by a wholly international agency able to look at safeguards throughout the world."

Foster said such an agency already exists in the IAEA "and we believe it should have the job of ensuring that peaceful (nuclear) products are not diverted to military purposes."

France, which boycotts the disarmament conference, has given notice it will not sign any nonproliferation treaty negotiated here.

As a nuclear military power, France would not be subject to controls in any case.

Despite the objections from West Germany, Italy and other countries, American officials are confident the treaty will be signed this summer.

West Germany and Italy object to IAEA controls on two main grounds:

They fear that IAEA inspectors could conduct industrial espionage on behalf of the Russians, who are members of the agency, and they argue that the treaty setting up Euratom does not allow its members to submit to controls from any other body.

In a speech to the conference, Soviet delegate Alexei Roshchin said such objections were attempts to disrupt the negotiations.

Foster said some compromise would have to be worked out with the Euratom members to permit IAEA inspection. He stressed that this would still leave plenty of work for Euratom to do, such as distributing and supervising plutonium provided by the United States for the Common Market countries.

"We participated in the formation of Euratom," he said. "We have encouraged it and made a treaty with it. We are not attacking Euratom. Euratom does a number of things besides applying safeguards."

Stopping Funds Was Not Allowed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Central Intelligence Agency sought to curtail its financing of private organizations in the past but ran into objections from other arms of the government, says Sen. Milton R. Young.

The North Dakota Republican said every investment the CIA made in an organization outside the government was undertaken on written instructions, apparently from the National Security Council.

He said the spy agency's checks were subject to scrutiny in the Bureau of the Budget, like the Security Council, a White House agency.

Young said in some instances CIA financial support originally was promoted by the State Department.

Young, senior Republican on the Senate panel which oversees CIA financing and operation, said the intelligence agency was trying to get some of its instructions changed prior to the public storm that broke last week with disclosure it had been subsidizing the National Student Association.

Young said secrecy restrictions barred his giving a more detailed description. He talked after CIA Director Richard Helms briefed the Senate panel for three hours Tuesday. Helms also met with the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Senate subcommittee, said Helms reported the agency is withdrawing financial support of some private organizations.

He would not quote Helms further. Russell did not make clear whether the Helms report involved a halt in aid to groups still secretly receiving CIA funds. Helms would not answer newsmen's questions after the hearing.

In other developments:

— Sources close to President Johnson said he will make no statement about CIA subsidies until a panel of three government officials completes its review of the situation.

— Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said he flatly opposes secret government investment in private organizations.

— The student body president of the University of California at Berkeley, Dan McIntosh, said the National Student Association's "international program is dead. The credibility of United States students abroad is greatly damaged." He is on the NSA board.

— Peter O'Donnell Jr., Texas Republican chairman, said the Jones-O'Donnell Foundation which he heads has served as a conduit for CIA funds.

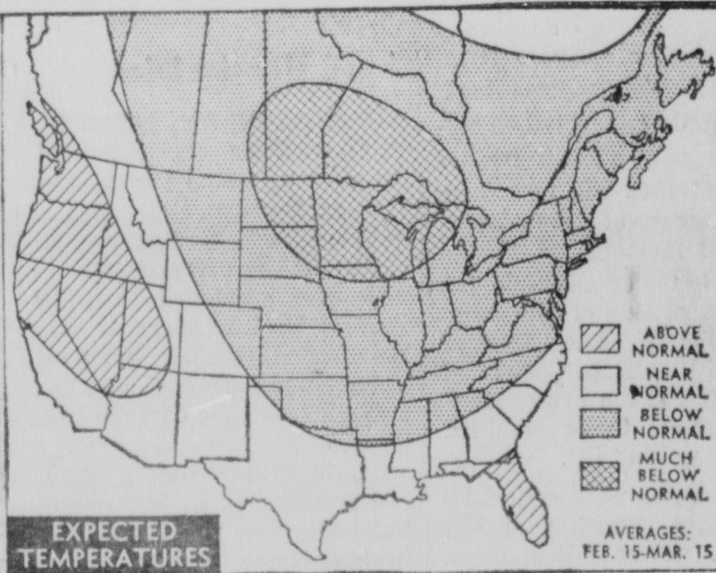

— Republican Reps. Donald E. Lukens of Ohio and John E. Hunt of New Jersey demanded a congressional investigation to determine "how much of the millions of dollars of the taxpayers' money the CIA channeled to private organizations was used for leftist purposes."

The presidential sources said Johnson does not want to prejudge the case, wants solid facts before speaking publicly and wants the benefit of judgment and recommendations of the investigating panel of Helms, Undersecretary of State Nicholas Katzenbach and Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare John W. Gardner.

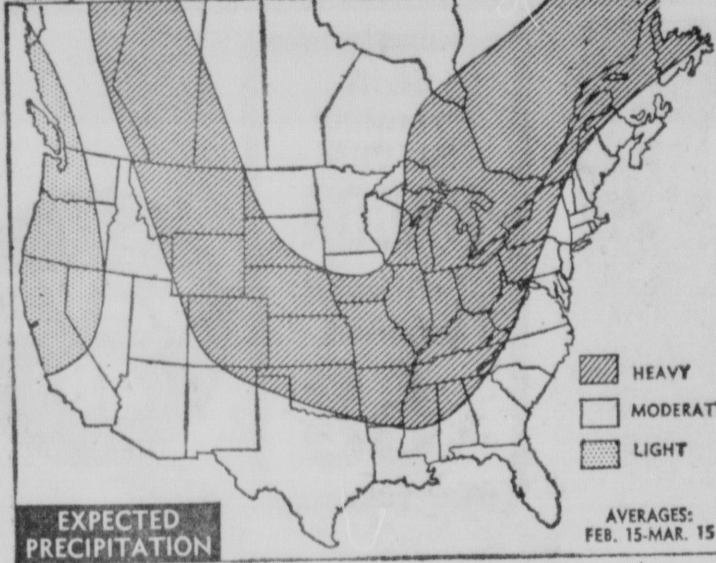

Prison Talent Show

POINT OF THE MOUNTAIN, Utah (AP) — This Friday and Saturday inmates of Utah State Prison will present a talent show for "outsiders."

It's entitled "Felon Follies."

Temperatures will vary on each side of the Continental Divide from mid-February to mid-March, the Weather Bureau reports. Below seasonal normals are expected east of the Divide, while above normal is expected west of the Divide in the Great Basin and the Northwest.

Precipitation is expected to exceed normal over western portions of the Northern Plains, and from the central plains eastward through the Middle Mississippi Valley to the Appalachians and northward to the Great Lakes. Subnormal is expected in northern and central parts of West Coast states.

Memorial To Churchill Is Planned

WASHINGTON (AP) — A group of prominent citizens today announced a $5 million gift campaign to build a cathedral tower as a memorial to the late Sir Winston Churchill.

Headed by Otis L. Guernsey, honorary board chairman of Abercrombie & Fitch, a New York store, the group hopes to finance construction of the southwest tower of the National Cathedral here as a tribute to the British wartime Prime Minister's world role in the first half of this century.

The Episcopal Cathedral, now two-thirds complete, was begun in 1907, when its foundation stone was laid by President Theodore Roosevelt.

The west front section, including the southwest tower, is scheduled for completion in 1965.

Members of the national committee for the Churchill memorial include the Rev. Dr. John T. Golding, vicar of the cathedral, and Miss Kay Halle, author of "Irrepressible Churchill."

The cathedral, which serves all faiths, will be the sixth largest in the world when completed. Its towers rise 234 feet above its site on Mt. St. Alban, already the highest point in the nation's capital.

A spokesman said Lady Churchill, the Prime Minister's widow, has endorsed the idea. Churchill's mother was born in the United States.

Seem Assured Of Getting Hike In U.S. Debt

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration seems assured today of getting the $6 billion increase in the national debt it has urgently sought although congressional details still must be hammered out.

The Senate voted 54 to 23 Tuesday to hike the debt ceiling from $330 billion to $336 billion. Passage followed brief debate.

But the Senate version contained one important change in the measure passed by the House two weeks earlier, so a conference between the two houses will be necessary. Each named its conferees Tuesday.

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., who will head the Senate delegation, said he hoped this meeting could be held Thursday.

He noted that Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler has advised Congress he must have the new ceiling by the end of February or he cannot pay all the government's March bills.

The Senate voted for a permanent limit of $336 billion, $51 billion over the present permanent ceiling of $285 billion.

The House followed the Treasury's recommendation in providing a $336 billion temporary limit, $6 billion over the $330 billion temporary figure which has been in effect since last July 1.

Bond Is Reduced; Arson Suspect Free

NEOSHO, Mo. (AP) — A defense motion for reduction of bond from $5,000 to $2,500 was granted Tuesday and Paul A. Torre was released from the county jail pending arraignment on a charge of arson.

Tuesday's scheduled arraignment was postponed by Judge Paul E. Carver in Circuit Court because the county prosecutor, Jerry Graves, was in Joplin on another case.

Torre, 18, a freshman at Crowder Junior College, is accused of setting fire to a parked truckload of hay Feb. 12. He is from Brooklyn, N.Y.

WASHINGTON (AP) — New federal regulations setting high educational standards for directors of independent laboratories could force many of them out of business, the directors claim.

More than 250 lab directors came to Congress Monday to protest new regulations set up by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare as part of the medicare program.

The delegation said it was most concerned about the rule that by June 30, 1971, all independent laboratory directors must hold either an M.D. degree or a doctorate in the biological, physical or chemical sciences.

This regulation and others setting educational standards for lab personnel would force about 75 per cent of the association's members out of business and create a serious shortage of laboratory services for medicare patients, said O. Meyer Samson, director of a laboratory in Philadelphia.

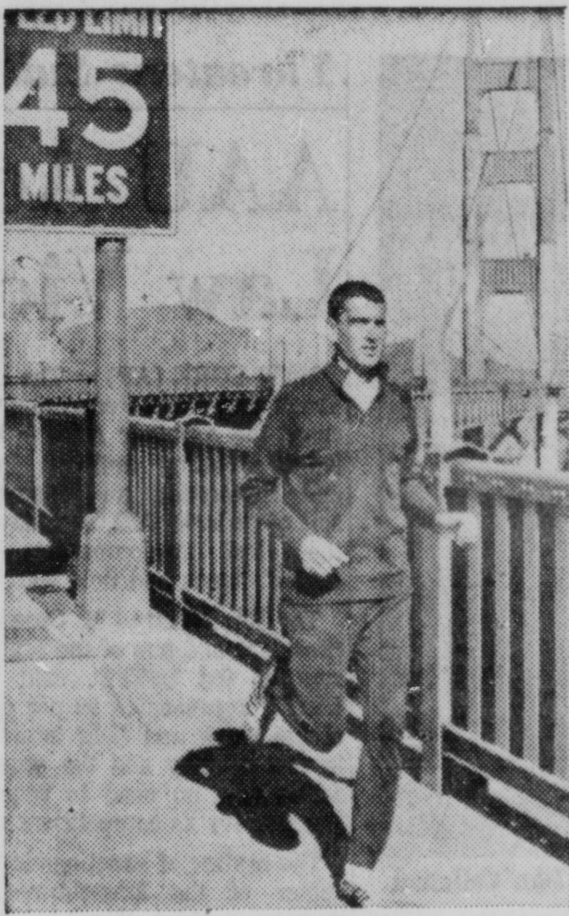

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four members of the President's Crime Commission have criticized the commission's report for failing to find fault with "traditional methods" of dealing with narcotics and other harmful drugs.

The commission's report and recommendations on an extensive list of crime-related topics were issued Saturday.

Although the commission did an excellent job on the whole, the four members who spoke up Monday said, it "has not confronted many unanswered questions about narcotics and dangerous drugs."

The supplemental statement to the commission's report was issued by Whitney M. Young Jr., executive director of the National Urban League; Mrs. Robert J. Stuart of Spokane, Wash., president of the League of Women Voters; Justice Charles D. Breitel of the Appellate Division of the New York State Supreme Court; and Kingman Brewster Jr., president of Yale University.

Sedalians To Honor Society Convention

Representatives of the Smith-Cotton Chapter and the C. C. Hubbard Chapter of the National Honor Society attended the sixth annual convention of the Missouri Association of National Honor Society Chapters held at Parkway Senior High School, Chesterfield, on Feb. 18.

The theme for the convention this year was "What's In Missouri for Missourians."

The highlight of the convention was the keynote address given by Governor Warren E. Hearnes. Among the ideas stated by the Governor was the responsibility this group must take in leading in future life endeavors.

At the afternoon business meeting the following schools were elected officers for the coming year: McClure High School, president; Mexico High School, vice-president; Centralia High School, secretary; Villa Duchesne High School, treasurer.

MONTREAL, (AP) — Nobody is sure how many people will attend Montreal's world's fair, called Expo 67, but everybody connected with it seems confident that more Americans than Canadians will see this event in Canada's largest city.

Consultants hired by Expo 67 project the attendance as 55.6 per cent American, 41.5 per cent Canadian—with the remainder from other countries.

The expectation is that the bulk of fairgoers will come from a radius of 600 miles, an area where 90 million live. New York is expected to send the largest U.S. contingent, followed in order by Pennsylvania, Ohio, New

If you thought Pontiac was coming out with just another sports car, you don't know Pontiac!

Pontiac announces not one, two, three or four, but five magnificent new Firebirds for every kind of driving.

Now you can choose from five new Firebirds with the same advanced Pontiac styling, but with five entirely different driving personalities. And they all come with supple expanded vinyl interiors, wood grain styled dash, exclusive space-saver collapsible spare, bucket seats and wide-oval tires.

Firebird HO. HO stands for High Output. As a split second behind the wheel will attest to. The Firebird HO boasts a 285-hp V-8 with a four-barrel carburetor, dual exhausts and sport striping. Standard stick is a column-mounted three-speed. Naturally, all Firebird options are available.

Firebird 400. Coiled under those dual scoops is a 400 cubic inch V-8 that shrugs off 325 hp. It's connected to a floor-mounted heavy-duty three-speed. On special suspension with redline wide-oval tires. This could be called the ultimate in grand touring. After this, there isn't any more.

Firebird Sprint. Now you don't have to go to Europe for a sophisticated road machine. This is the 215-hp version of our eager Overhead Cam Six. It's mounted on special suspension that practically welds it to the road. (Any road!) With a floor-mounted all-synchro 3-speed.

Firebird. This is our economy Firebird—with the same exciting options and interiors as the more exotic ones. It's Overhead Cam Six squeezes 165 hp from regular for inexpensive fun driving. See them all at your Pontiac dealer's.

NFL Marks Time On Player Draft Issue

HONOLULU (AP) — The National Football League still is marking time today on the controversial college draft formula after making minor changes in the playing rules and setting up the schedule for its profitable postseason title play.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle has been taking his time before pressing for action on the date and format of the first common draft with the American Football League.

Before the meetings end Thursday or Friday, Rozelle hopes to have his forces in agreement on separate regular and red shirt drafts in mid-March. The AFL already has separate drafts for the red shirts, players who still have college eligibility although their original class has graduated.

Rozelle said Tuesday the draft had not come up yet although there had been some discussion of proposals that restrict trading of draft choices, especially the red shirt variety. However, no action has been taken.

There will be a new look to NFL parks in 1967 because the league had adopted a single-standard goalpost that looks like a giant slingshot. The one post with a steel base, is recessed six feet into the end zone with the aluminum uprights branching out to the goal line and extending 20 feet above the crossbars.

Mark Duncan, supervisor of officials, said the new posts should reduce injuries and also should help both the offense and defense in goal line situations. Elimination of one standard should make it easier to run pass patterns and also should give the defense a chance to handle its assignments without interference from the two posts.

A revision in the fair catch rule should eliminate the practice, common last year, of defensive men signalling a fair catch and then throwing a devastating block on a punt coverage man while the ball sailed into the end zone.

Under the new rule a player who signals for a fair catch may not initiate contact with the opposing player. The penalty is 15 yards for a personal foul.

The league also voted to mark the field with a white six-foot perimeter border, outlining the playing area. This border was used in Dallas for the title game and also in Los Angeles in the Super Bowl.

Dates for the postseason schedule were set up. The winners of the two four-club divisions in the Western Conference will meet Saturday, Dec. 23 in the park of the Central Division winner (Green Bay, Chicago, Minnesota or Detroit).

The winners of the Eastern Conference's two divisions will meet Sunday, Dec. 24 in the home of the Capital Division winner (Dallas, Washington, Philadelphia or New Orleans). The two winners will play for the league title, Sunday, Dec. 31 in the Western city.

The league also changed the name of one Eastern Division unit from Federal to Century. That consists of Cleveland, New York, Pittsburgh and St. Louis. This sets the stage for two games in Green Bay if the Packers take their divisional and conference crowns.

The player limit, now 40, was discussed Tuesday, but no decision was made.

University On Trial; Faces Commissioners

CHICAGO (AP)—The University of Illinois goes on trial today before Big Ten athletic directors and Commissioner Bill Reed.

Reed will present a report to the athletic directors on his investigation of athletic irregularities stemming from last December's exposure of a $21,000 slush fund.

Reed's investigation began Dec. 16, shortly after the university revealed the athletic department had been operating an unauthorized fund solicited outside the university for a period of five years.

The university immediately suspended 12 football and basketball players who had received unauthorized financial assistance and placed football Coach Pete Elliott and basketball Coach Harry Combes on offers for him to either coach or serve as general manager of a club.

one year's probation, prohibiting them from personal contact with prospective athletes.

After the athletic directors study Reed's report they will determine what, if any, Big Ten action will be taken.

James Hughes, regional public relations manager, said "There will be two shifts of at least four hours each worked today at the GM Assembly division plant. We can not spell out exactly how long the shifts will be." A shutdown of that plant is planned for Thursday, he said. The plant employs 3,300 line workers.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

With approximately 23,000 miles of high-speed, superroads completed, the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways was more than half-finished by the end of 1966, says The World Almanac. By 1975, the 41,000-mile network of roads is expected to be completed. Total cost is estimated to be about $51 billion—the federal government will pay 94 per cent and the states 10 per cent. The finished interstate system will link 90 per cent of all cities in the United States with a population of over 50,000.

Liberalize Reserve Officers Regulation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Armed Services Committee said today the Defense Department will liberalize its policy on release of reserve officers held on active duty during the Vietnam buildup.

Principally affected are about 400 to 500 reserve officers in Vietnam.

The Pentagon announced last month that such reserve officers would no longer be retained against their consent.

Armed Services Committee Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., said under the new Defense Department policy no reserve officer may be retained on active duty involuntarily except to complete a term of duty to which he consented or to complete an active duty obligation of a definite term.

Rivers said the reserve officers involved "will be released on an orderly schedule, but in no event later than 30 June 1967."

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Small Powers Pose Trouble To Treaty

GENEVA, (AP) — The small powers posed the chief obstacle to agreement as the United States, the Soviet Union and 15 other nations resumed efforts today to work out a treaty banning the spread of nuclear weapons.

The 17 nations participating in the United Nations Disarmament Conference hope to have the treaty ready by the last week in September when the U.N. General Assembly convenes in New York.

Unlike past sessions, this one is not expected to produce any major clashes between the United States and the Soviet Union. The main sticking point between the two is a provision for international inspection to determine whether nonnuclear nations comply with the treaty. Soviet negotiator Alexei Roshchin is reported to have told William C. Foster, the U.S. representative, that the Soviet Union could not accept this provision.

Prospects of working out a meaningful treaty were also marred by the fact that two of the five nuclear powers, Red China and France, have refused in advance to sign it.

The main trouble, however, stems from the countries which do not have nuclear weapons but do have an advanced nuclear industry which could make a bomb in a short time.

Chief among these are West Germany, Japan, India, Italy, Sweden, Switzerland and Israel.

They have two chief complaints: — The superpowers have not yet joined in offering them binding guarantees against attack from Red China. This particularly worries India.

— They have no guarantee that they will benefit from industrial discoveries which the nuclear powers may make in the course of experiments on weapons.

The West Germans have also complained that Soviet inspectors, checking to keep bombs from being made, will spy on peaceful research.

There is also the complaint that the big powers have made no promise to cut down on their own nuclear arsenals.

Missiles Miss Most U.S. Planes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon sources said today North Vietnam's Soviet-made surface-to-air missiles are scoring only one bull's-eye in every 48 attempts to hit U.S. planes.

Such figures prompted Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara to tell Congress the missiles "are not worth stealing in my opinion."

Beyond the direct plane losses to SAM's, however, there are the U.S. fighters which are hit by ground anti-aircraft batteries after being forced to maneuver below the high-soaring missiles.

Sources report that the missiles are not as inferior as they appear at first glance.

"We are using some pretty sophisticated countermeasures against them," one officer said. "It takes a pretty good radar operator to run the SAM system in the kind of environment that the North Vietnamese are faced with. You don't take a Hanoi high school graduate and give him the necessary training overnight."

He was referring to the advance warning American pilots get against SAM's through radar.

By making a sort of reverse S maneuver, the fighters can swing beneath the arching, slow-turning SAM's.

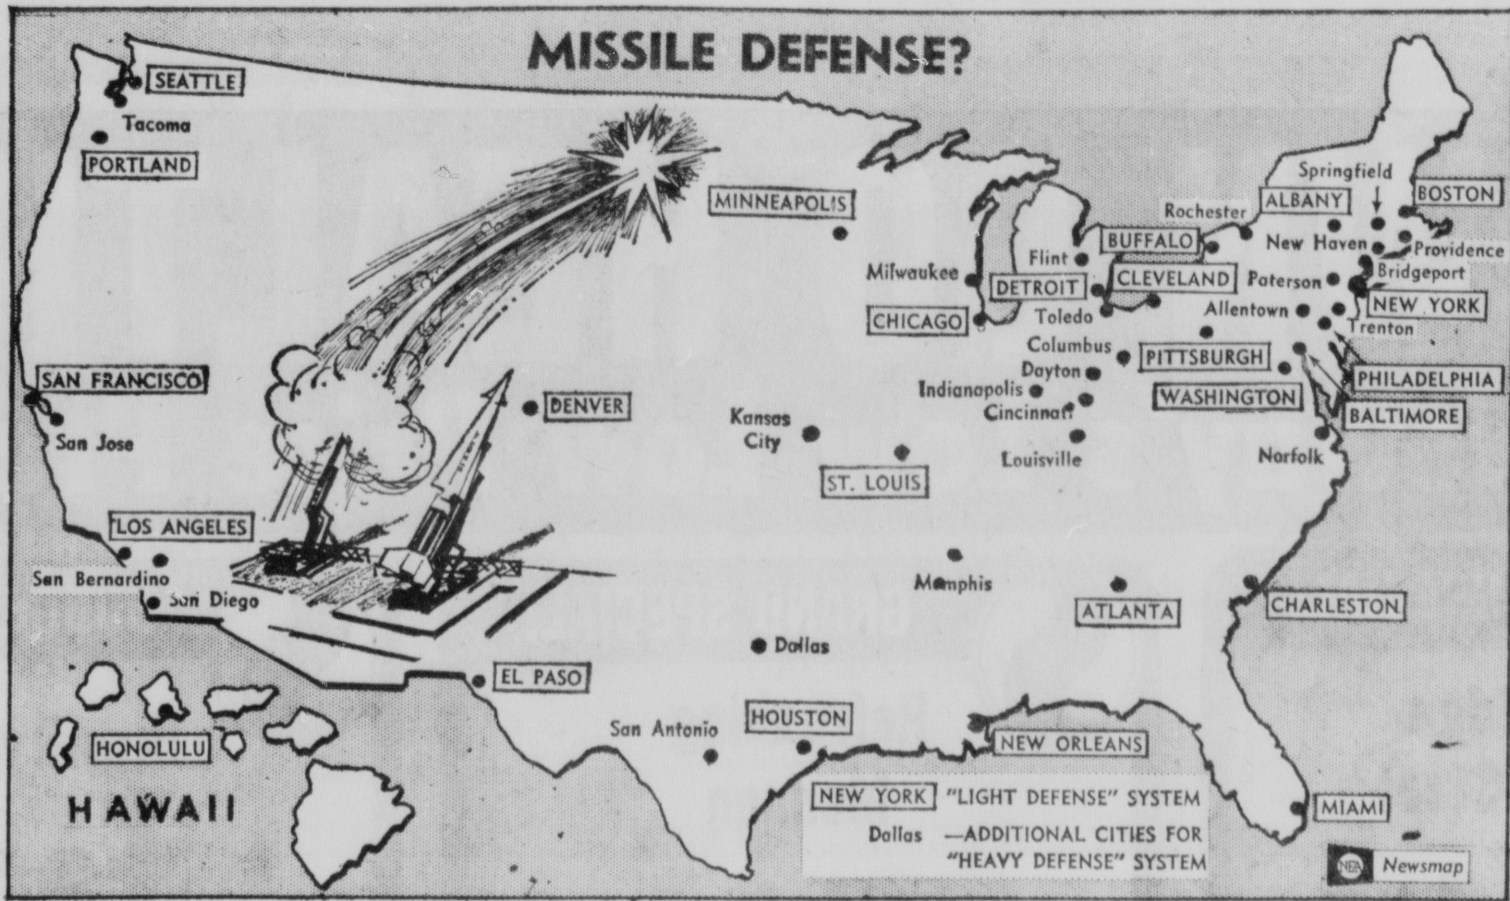

While sources say the SAM's have bagged only 33 planes, the Pentagon said Feb. 6 that 469 planes had been lost on combat missions over North Vietnam. The other 436 were presumably lost mostly to groundfire.

Sources report that as of Feb. 15, the North Vietnamese have fired 1,588 radar-guided SAM's for an .021 batting average.

Since last August, however, the average has been only .018, with 19 hits in 1,045 shots. Until last August, the SAM's had scored an .026 average, figures showed at that time.

Testifying before the Senate Armed Services Committee in late January, McNamara was asked by Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, about reports China had been snatching some of the missiles lost from the Soviet Union to Hanoi.

The Pentagon chief said he had no evidence this was happening, said the missiles weren't worth stealing and went on to relate the poor performance of the 35-foot SAM's with figures that were censored from publicly released transcripts of his testimony.

Although opposed to developing a massive antimissile defense system, Secretary of Defense McNamara has come up in congressional testimony with two possible plans—a "light defense" and a "heavy defense." The light defense would call for establishing antiballistic missile (ABM) sites around 25 major cities, boxed on Newsmap, and would cost an estimated $12 billion. The heavier defense would add an additional 25 cities and boost the cost to $40 billion. McNamara, however, doubts practicality of either plan, holding that no ABM system could effectively ward off a Soviet missile attack.

At Local School

Blue And Gold Banquet For Cub Scouts, Parents

The cafeteria at Heber Hunt School was filled with Cub Scouts and parents for the Blue and Gold Banquet held on Feb. 14th, which began with the covered dish dinner served cafeteria style. Each table was decorated carrying out the Cub Scouting and the patriotic themes of the month of February. Around the room on tables were things that had been made by the Cubs.

Cub Scouts and their parents were seated at the table for their particular den and there were seven tables.

The trophy for 100 per cent attendance of both parents and Cubs went to Den 6.

Invocation was given by Wray Schroeder.

Master of ceremonies was Kenny Schilb.

Fred Lovercamp, pack committee chairman, gave recognition to the adults who had assisted in the work with the Cubs: Ralph Banning, treasurer; Donald Raines, institutional representative; Albert Hill, chairman of arrangements; Morris Campbell, Scout-O-Rama tickets, assisted with awards; Bill Yarboro, Scout-O-Rama booth and banquet tables; William Gabler, Christmas party; Gary Cooper, Scout window removal; Mrs. Richard Goodheart, banquet; Mrs. Harold Hausam, banquet; Bill Burkholder, Pine Wood Derby; Arnold Weaver, publicity.

A table covered with a white cloth held several rows of candles in blue and white, tall candles in the back and several smaller white candles in the front row.

The lighting of the candles was most effective. The tall blue taper at the front was lighted by Kenny Schilb, Cubmaster, who explained that the blue candle represents the spirit of Scouting. He was assisted in the ceremony by Lindy Tarwater, assistant Cubmaster, who lighted the first candle of the back row from the blue candle, then, as their names were called others came forward and lighted candles on the back row, taking their places behind the table. The following Den Mothers lighted their candles and took their places: Mrs. Wray Schroeder, Den 1; Mrs. Charles McMullin, assistant, Den 1; Mrs. R. E. Benner, Den 2; Mrs. Ralph Banning, Den 3; Mrs. Lindy Tarwater, Den 4; Mrs. Gary Cooper, assistant, Den 4; Mrs. Bill Yarboro, Den 5; Mrs. Bob Pirtle, assistant, Den 5; Mrs. Doris Allison, Den 6; Mrs. Donald Raines, assistant, Den 6.

John W. Lewellen, Silver Arrow, Wolf; Gregory Lovercamp, Silver Arrow, Wolf, Assistant Denner; Jimmy Swafford, Wolf Badge, Gold Arrow, Wolf; Steven R. Tarwater, Silver Arrow, Wolf, Denner; Dennis K. Weaver, Silver Arrow, Wolf.

The impressive part of the ceremony came when the lights were turned out and only the glow of the candles lighted the

Will Move To Get Gas Price Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government will move to force gasoline prices down by increasing imports unless oil companies roll back one-cent per gallon increases this week, Undersecretary of the Interior Charles F. Luce said today.

Luce, heading government attempts to get to oil companies to rescind price hikes, outlined in an interview three steps the government might take to increase gasoline supplies:

— Reallocate to importers the quota of 30,000 barrels of petroleum products which the Defense Department currently is not using. The quota now is not filled as part of the administration effort to reduce the balance-of-payments deficit.

— Shift from domestic to foreign oil producers some Defense Department purchases now made for overseas use. The shift would put more oil on the room in the area where the Cub Scouts, in the blue and gold uniforms, stood, giving the Scout salute as they faced the American flag and gave the pledge of allegiance, at the close of which the bugle in the distance softly sounded taps.

THE SEDALIA DEMOCRAT

nongovernmental domestic market.

— Allow Commonwealth Oil Refining Co. to ship in more gasoline from its Puerto Rico refinery; increase the quota that Hess Oil Co. is allowed to bring in from its new Virgin Island refinery.

Should these steps prove ineffective, said Luce, the government could work to increase crude oil production by holders of leases on federal lands.

All the increases to date have involved gasoline prices east of the Rocky Mountains.

One major distributor — Humble Oil & Refining Co., principal marketing unit of Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey — has not upped its prices.

Luce has urged Humble to hold firm and said this could eventually force the other companies to back down. Humble has an estimated 10 per cent of the market.

Luce indicated the government might not have opposed an increase of less than one cent specifically designed to benefit dealers and jobbers.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

About 500,000 earthquakes occur every year but only 1,000 are strong enough to cause any damage, says The World Almanac. The exact cause of quakes is not really known but most scientists believe that they result from massive shifts of the earth's crust along fracture or fault lines. When one side of the fracture line either drops or raises, tremendous waves of energy are released that shake the earth.

Soustelle Haunting De Gaulle

By HARVEY HUDSON
LYON, France (AP) — Jacques Soustelle, a turbulent and discordant echo from Charles de Gaulle's past, is making a spiritual return to France to haunt his old hero. Soustelle lives in exile, threatened with arrest if he steps onto French soil, but he is a candidate for a deputy's seat in next month's legislative elections. He will be the "ghost candidate" among 2,244 aspirants seeking 470 places in the National Assembly.

Jean Miriot, a Lyon municipal councillor, who is one of Soustelle's campaign managers. "This is a serious candidacy. We think there's a chance to win but we're prepared to lose. We're fighting at a tremendous disadvantage. We have only limited resources, while the Gaullist opposition has the use of radio and television and plenty of money."

Although expert opinion is divided, Soustelle as a winner might immediately be covered by parliamentary immunity so he could walk into Paris as a free man. But a Gaullist-dominated Parliament could vote to lift Soustelle's immunity.

Edouard Charrett, a member of the Gaullist party, says firmly "It's my seat and I intend to keep it."

Charrett claims to be the political father of Soustelle in Lyon and shrugs off the unexpected candidacy as a sort of bad political joke by an errant and ungrateful son.

Soustelle, 55, is an incarnation of France's drama over the Algerian war.

He followed Gen. de Gaulle to London in 1940 after the fall of France and worked in the Free French intelligence services. An archeologist of repute, through a study of the Aztec civilization in Mexico, he plunged into politics after the liberation of France.

Soustelle was elected a deputy in 1951 from Lyon, and was re-elected in 1956. During those days of constantly changing governments of the Fourth Republic, he was one of the chief Gaullist spokesmen in Parliament and usually acted as the Gaullist hatchet man when the time came to topple a cabinet.

In 1955, he was appointed governor general of Algeria by Premier Pierre Mendes-France. French residents of Algeria protested he was too far to the left.

Within months, the settlers had won Soustelle to their views and accepted him as their champion.

In May, 1958, when the Algerian settlers and the army were boiling up to open revolt, the teetering government in Paris put a guard on Soustelle's Paris apartment. Soustelle hid in the trunk of a car, fled to Geneva and flew to Algiers. There he helped channel the directionless revolution into a clear call for the return of De Gaulle, hailed then as the savior of French Algeria.

As a reward Soustelle was named minister of information when De Gaulle formed a government. Algerian terrorists fired on his car near the Arch of Triumph.

To Expand Relations

PANAMA (AP) — Panama and Poland have agreed to expand trade relations and may exchange diplomatic missions, the Panamanian Foreign Office disclosed. The proposed trade agreement, discussed during the recent visit to a Polish economic mission, also would open the way for Polish financing of public works projects in Panama.

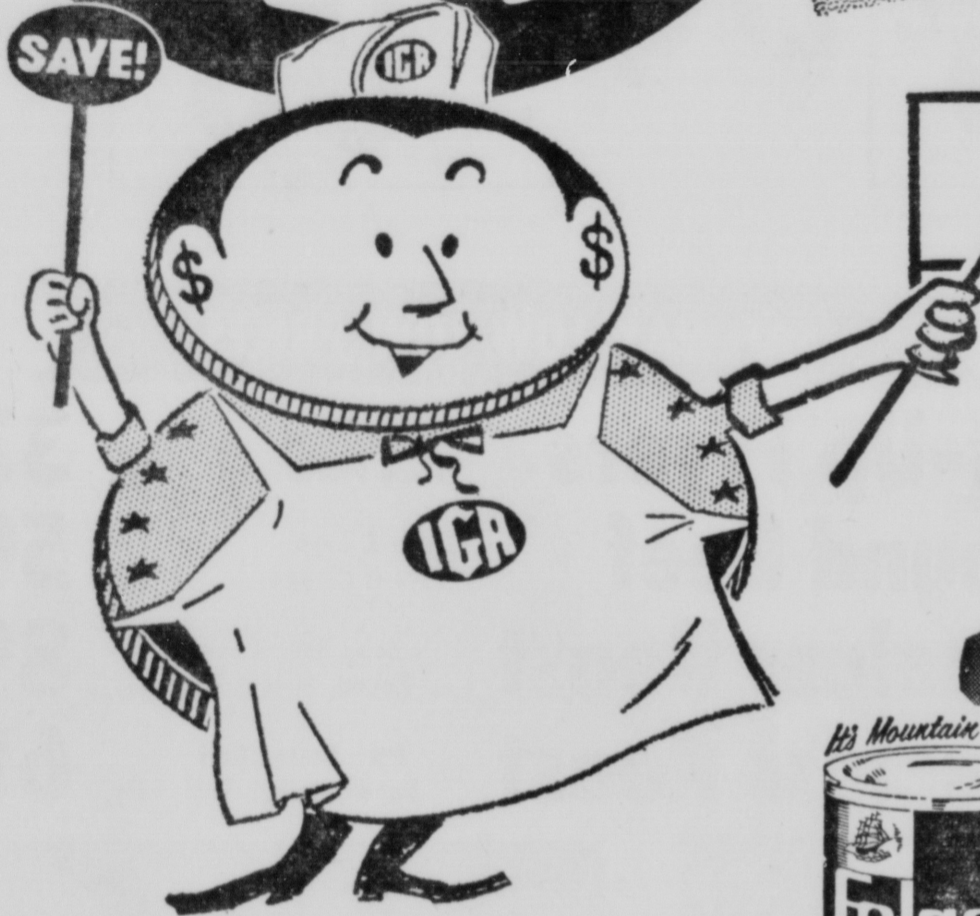

When it became clear that De Gaulle was moving toward Algerian independence, Soustelle broke with him, fled France and worked politically to support the angry settlers who saw Algeria slipping through their hands.

He has been in exile since 1960.

Old Stamps Destroyed By Italians

ROME (AP) — In a stamp collector's nightmare turned into reality, the Italian government is putting a match to 57 million old postage stamps worth millions of dollars.

Destruction of 255 sacks of unsold stamps, issued between 1859 to 1963, began Monday and will continue four days.

The stamps are being burned to clean out the Postal Ministry's cupboard and prevent the philatelic deflation that would result if they were thrown into the market.

Possessors of valuable Italian commemorative collections could sigh in relief that the value of their specimens was being preserved. But the stamp burning was enough to make aspiring collectors wring their hands in anguish.

Postal administration officials are witnessing the daily burning in the Bank of Italy's special furnaces for destroying mutilated banknotes.

Turned to fine black soot Monday were the 1933 issue to commemorate the Rome-New York flight of Italo Balbo, the Fascist minister of aviation. They are worth $1,600 per stamp on the Italian philatelic market.

Incinerated with them were stamps of similar value marking the bimillennium of Horace (1936), the 150th anniversary of composer Gioacchino Rossini's birth (1942), the centenary of physicist Alessandro Volta's birth (1927) and 19th-century stamps from the last days of Rome as a Papal State.

Moniteau County 4-H Council Views Slides

The Moniteau County 4-H Council had as their guest recently Mrs. Mary Ann Frank Thacker of Jefferson City. Mrs. Thacker, a former IFYE delegate to the Netherlands, presented slides taken during her six months stay as an IFYE in the Netherlands. Mrs. Thacker had completed ten years of 4-H club work emphasizing dairy as her project. She is currently enrolled as a student at Lincoln University and is majoring in home economics.

She urged the 4-H members and leaders to continue to work on the opportunities offered by the IFYE program.

The council meeting opened with pledges to the flags led by Anne Pettigrew and Peggy Allee. Arthur Bleich, vice president of the council, presented the 4-H goals for the Moniteau County 4-H Council for 1967. The goals call for increasing 4-H membership to 180. Mrs. Clark Howard, president of the council, announced that the annual skating party for 4-H members will be Sunday, March 12, at 1:30 in California.

Mrs. Smith, Extension Home Economist announced that the National 4-H Leader's Forum will be held in Washington, D.C. March 27th to April 1st. The application deadline is Feb. 28th. 4-H leaders are urged to en-

Steel Production Falls Again In Week

NEW YORK (AP)—Steel production fell to 2,476,000 tons last week, making the 1967 total 78,000 tons less than a year ago, the American Iron and Steel Institute reported.

Production the week ended Saturday was down from 2,482,000 tons the previous week. The institute estimated 1967 production at 16,980,000 tons, down from 17,058,000 a year ago.

The national production index last week was 132.9, down from 133.2 the previous week.

Fire Under Control

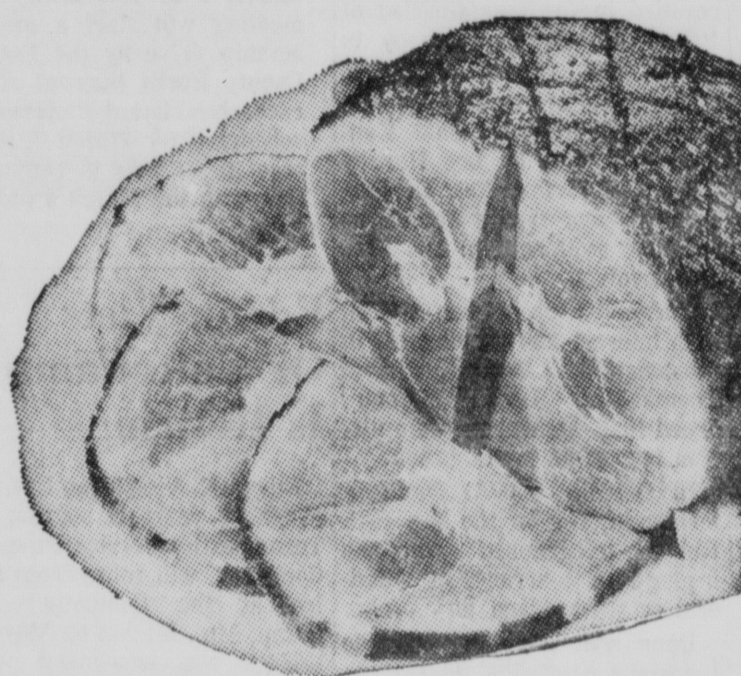

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Indian officials have announced that an underground coal-mine fire which has been burning for 35 years at Jharla in eastern India has been brought under control. The government estimates the fire destroyed 7.5 million tons of coal through the years, while 700,000 tons of sand and water were used in fighting the fire.

Taylor And Burton Are Nominated

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Academy Award nominations for Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor make them the fourth husband-wife team nominated in the same year—but they have to share the spotlight with a sister act.

Burton and Miss Taylor were nominated Monday for best actor and best actress awards for their performance in "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?"—a film that won 13 nominations.

The sisters, Lynn and Vanessa Redgrave, are daughters of English actor Michael Redgrave. They are only the second pair of sisters to receive nominations in the same year.

They were nominated for the best actress Oscar; Lynn for "Georgy Girl," Vanessa for "Morgan."

The Burtons joined illustrious company in the husband-wife area. The others were Lynn Fontanne and Alfred Lunt (1931), Charles Laughton and Elsa Lanchester (1957), and Rex Harrison and Rachel Roberts (1963).

The only previous sisters nomination was in 1941 when Joan Fontaine was nominated for "Suspicion" and Olivia de Havilland for "Hold Back the Dawn." Miss Fontaine won.

"Woolf," with its 13 nominations, became almost automatically the front runner for the film capital's big prize. If it wins, it will be the first Academy Award winner ever barred to young viewers.

Because of its sex-oriented dialogue, it was released on the basis that "no one under 18 will be admitted unless accompanied by an adult."

Although limited to four characters, "Woolf" has nominees in all four acting categories.

Nominated for best picture of 1966—in addition to "Woolf"—were "A Man for All Seasons," "Alfie," "The Russians Are Coming," "The Sand Pebbles," and "The Sand Pebbles."

The international character of the industry once again was firmly established. Nearly half of the potential Oscar winners are British. Others come from Japan, Czechoslovakia and Tahiti.

The top nominations:
Best actor: Richard Burton, "Woolf"; Alan Arkin, "Russians"; Michael Caine, "Alfie"; Steve McQueen, "The Sand Pebbles"; Paul Scofield, "A Man for All Seasons."

Best actress: Elizabeth Taylor, "Woolf"; Anouk Aimee, "A Man and a Woman"; Ida Kaminska, "The Shop on Main Street"; Lynn Redgrave, "Georgy Girl"; Vanessa Redgrave, "Morgan."

Best supporting actor: George Segal, "Woolf"; Mako, "The Sand Pebbles"; James Mason, "Georgy Girl"; Walter Matthau, "The Fortune Cookie"; Robert Shaw, "A Man for All Seasons."

Best supporting actress: Sandy Dennis, "Woolf"; Wendy Hiller, "A Man for All Seasons."

STARTLED STAR breezing down a modern street is far from the sound of music in Salzburg or a missionary's hut in Hawaii, but she's still unmistakable as one of box office's biggest—Julie Andrews, shown here doing a scene for her latest movie, "Thoroughly Modern Millie."

New Savings Bond Unveiling Is Expected

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government is expected to unveil today a new higher interest savings bond it hopes will attract up to $1 billion over the next year to help fight the Vietnam war.

An interest rate of between 4.5 and 4.75 per cent will be offered only to persons who buy savings bonds on the payroll savings plan or the bond-a-month plan.

The Treasury Department scheduled the kickoff for its 1967 bond drive with a closed circuit telecast at luncheon bond rallies in 32 cities.

Last February, the government raised the interest rate on Series E and H savings bonds—the types most frequently bought by the public—from 3.75 to 4.15 per cent.

Before today's luncheon, spokesmen for the savings and loan industry, which protested the new bond starting last year, predicted the department would offer an interest rate of about 4.6 per cent.

Even a 4.5 per cent rate is too high, said the National League of Insured Savings Associations. When the new bond was first discussed late last year, the department was reportedly considering a 5 per cent interest rate. This was protested immediately by banks and savings and loan associations.

son; Jocelyne Lagarde, "Hawaii"; Vivien Merchant, "Alfie"; Geraldine Page, "You're a Big Boy Now."

Best direction: Mike Nichols, "Woolf"; Michelangelo Antonioni, "Blow-Up"; Claude Lelouch, "A Man and a Woman"; Fred Zinnemann, "A Man for All Seasons"; Richard Brooks, "The Professionals."

Reuther Has Chance To Air Charges

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther has an open invitation today to air his charges before the AFL-CIO Executive Council.

AFL-CIO President George Meany's invitation wasn't as warm as the airline advertisement to "come on down" to sun-baked Miami Beach.

But Meany said he is ready to listen to any "novel or ancient" charge, complaint, proposal or program.

Reuther, who quit the AFL-CIO Executive Council with a 7,000-word indictment that Meany's leadership had led organized labor into complacency, will be replaced on the council.

But Meany — without mentioning Reuther by name—said any officer of any union is welcome to bring his grievances before the council now or later.

In Detroit, officers of the UAW reportedly were planning to ask approval of their convention April 20 before committing $3 million toward an organizing drive, social action programs and help for small unions seeking recognition or first contracts.

The UAW's 26-member executive board originally was reported considering making the offer in the 7,000-word manifesto outlining to local unions its reasons for what amounted to a threat to withdraw from the AFL-CIO.

But the board decided, top sources within the union say, to put it before the convention on grounds the board's constitutional authority to set aside the money might be questioned. The added weight which convention approval would give the programs also was said to be a consideration.

Jan. Employment In Downward Trend

Some sources in the UAW said other unions within the AFL-CIO might be challenged to match the UAW's $3 million. Others thought the UAW might go it alone.

Jan. Employment In Downward Trend

January employment in Pet-tis, Johnson and Morgan coun-ties showed a downward trend, which is normal due to seasonal lay offs, part-time employment in manufacturing and contract negotiations. The only increase was new applications for work; 33 per cent compared to last month.

Unemployment payments were considerably higher than the previous month, an increase of $45,518.48. This was due pri-marily to partial or temporary lay offs in manufacturing and seasonal lay offs in construction and retail industries. New claims filed during the month decreased indicating a more stable labor market.

Latest Colors, Fashions
At Beta Tau Style Show

Beta Tau Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, presented a spring style show Tuesday evening, Feb. 7, at Smith-Cotton Cafeteria with the latest fashions for coming season, many that may be worn throughout the summer, too, modeled by men, women and children for Sedalia stores.

The setting for the show was exceptionally beautiful with a white fence and gate, entwined with red roses as a background. On top of the arbor over the gate and on two of the fence posts were round white wire lanterns with lighted red candles, and bordering the walkway were green flower boxes with red geraniums.

The fashions were very lovely and feminine for the women and girls with the top color being orange. Practically all of the stores featured some shade of orange, from bright to the soft tones.

The skimmer is the favorite dress style, it seems, linen or with the linen look, usually with no sleeves and with rolled collar and low back, or scooped neckline. The sheath, too, is still popular as are shifts. Of course there are swingers and pleated skirts, low waistlines, and bows are used in trimming.

Dresses and suits were about knee length and the suits, were mostly three piece of varying materials, including knits, and easy to wear.

There are free easy lines in coats, too, coats that are so beautifully styled they flatter any figure. Some of the more fitted types and double-breasted are stunning for those who can wear them. The coats come in check, plaid, flecked and plain in many styles and colors.

Blue, Gold
Banquet At Wesley

A Blue and Gold banquet was held by Cub Pack 59 of the Wesley Methodist Church on Feb. 7.

The tables were cleverly decorated by each den with things they had made at previous meetings. On one table was a tier cake made by Mrs. Don Feedback representing the different steps in Cub Scouting.

Rusty Weaver, Scoutmaster of Troop 59, and Mrs. Weaver were special guests.

Harry L. Burford, Cub Master, presented Den Mother pens to Mrs. Claude O'Tyson, Mrs. Don Steen, Mrs. Kenneth Durrill, Mrs. Don Feedback, and Mrs. Gerald O'Neal for the wonderful work they are doing with the boys.

The following awards were also presented: Jim Smith, Bear and Gold Arrow; Allan Furrill, Wolf; Tommy Stoll, Lion; Greg Stober, Lion, Gold and Silver Arrow. Den and Denner Stripes were given to Claude O'Tyson, Danny Schilb and Harry B. Burford.

Assistant Denner stripes were given to John Graham, David Hill and Tommy Stoll.

Attendance awards were won by Den I, Mrs. Don Feedback, Den Mother, with 100 percent present.

An announcement was made of the ham and bean supper to be held Feb. 22, by Troop 59, at the Wesley Methodist Church which is open to the public. Bob Fritz and the Webelos volunteered to be the clean-up committee in the kitchen.

The highlight of the evening was the turtle race with Jewell Schilb, Assistant Cub Master in charge. Winners were: Den I, Mark Feedback, first; Rickie O'Neal, second and Greg Stober, third. Den II, Steven Stean, first; Steve Fisher, second and John Durrill, third. Den III, David Hicks, first; Tommy Stoll, second and David Cromley, third. Webelos, David Thompson, first; Harry B. Burford, second and Steve Fritz, third. Winners of the Pack were: Harry B. Burford, first; Steve Fisher, second and Steven Stean, third.

A Space Derby will be held at the next meeting on March 7, at the Wesley Methodist Church.

While navy, as usual, is a leading spring color, beige, white, and yellow are particularly good, with, of course black and other gay bright colors as well as the softer tones.

Hats are very good, big hats with high crowns and wide brims, true picture hats that set off the outfit, and again popular the little roller types, in straws of all kinds and also in linen.

Even the slack suits and sports suits are feminine and some are in flowered print.

The little girls fashions were as adorable as the little girls who modeled them. They are miniatures of the big girls in coats and suits and in dresses ruffles and lace and bows.

For boys suits of rayon and acetate fabric for all occasions.

Men's suits are the traditional three button styles with natural shoulders and also two button styles, colors are new and different, such as wheat toast and multi color blue green. The permanent pressed shirts are not only popular with the men but are a joy to wives and mothers. For sports are slacks, the more tapered leg being fashionable and of course sports coats, sweaters and sports shirts present a wide selection.

It looks like a spring of real fashion for there was not an unbecoming garment shown in the entire show.

Modeling were: Maxine's, Robin Meyer and Bridget Broadus; Burtons, Mrs. Barbara Doty, Miss Martha Gensler, Alice York, Miss Sara Greer and Carol Joquel; J. C. Penney's, Jeanna Edwards, Jeff Edwards, Mrs. Jim Edwards, Mrs. John Woodward, Mrs. Joe Hackman and Mrs. June Reardon.

A tribute was paid by Mrs. Carl Yates, narrator, to Mrs. Virginia Flower, president of C. W. Flower Co., whose funeral was that afternoon. Mrs. Flower, she said, was always an enthusiastic booster of all organizations sponsoring fashion shows. Her company had planned to participate but did not because of her death.

The fashion show was preceded by a group of selections by the Men's Choral Club under the direction of John Vande-kamp with Mrs. Keith Maynard at the piano.

Following the show were door prizes and card playing.

Mrs. Charles Barnett was chairman of the Fashion Show and Card Party and Mrs. Jim Curry is president of the Beta Tau Chapter.

CROWNED QUEEN—Mrs. Joanne Kabler (seated) was crowned queen of Epsilon Beta Valentine Dance, Beta Sigma Phi sorority, held Feb. 18 at the American Legion Hall. Crowning the queen is Mrs. Judi Morarity, last year's queen. Following the crowning, the queen and her husband led the first dance. A buffet was prepared by the social committee. Skies Are Clear Now

Pittsburgh's People Were Used to Smoke at One Time

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — It was only 10 A.M. but darkness had already fallen across the city.

Smoke pouring from steel mills, power plants, factories, foundries, office buildings, shops, trains and homes clogged the river valleys and shrouded the city.

Street lights burned. Drivers turned on headlights. Soot coated buildings and houses with grime, soiled clothes, smudged the skin and ruined merchandise. Office workers peering from windows could barely make out the shapes of buildings half a mile away.

That was Pittsburgh on a smoky day 20 or more years ago. Pittsburghers were used to smoke. In 1923 the dust that fell over a square mile in one month averaged 170 tons, equal to the weight of 100 cars. In some mill areas belching smoke stacks rained 600 tons of soot and cinders on homes and business places in 30 days.

Today Pittsburgh skies are relatively clear. Workers have sand-blasted the grime from older buildings. New office towers, clad in gleaming steel or aluminum, look as bright as the day they were erected.

How did Pittsburgh lick the air pollution problem? It hasn't, says Edward L. Stockton, chief of air pollution control for Allegheny County, which covers Pittsburgh and vicinity. The Pittsburgh area, he explains, has done a good job of clearing the air of solid particles. But Pittsburgh, like many other cities, still has some smoke and also is plagued by another pollutant — invisible gases that many experts believe are unhealthy.

Pittsburgh's accomplishment, however, clearly marks it as a pioneer in the battle for cleaner air. Even before the turn of the century, Pittsburgh was thinking about smoke control. The city's first smoke ordinance was passed in 1895, but it was meaningless. There was no technology then, says Stockton, to do anything about smoke. In 1941 a new law went into the books, but World War II got in the way. Pittsburgh was too busy turning out guns and bombs to worry about smoke.

After the war Pittsburghers relaxed, took a deep breath, and choked. The city was slowly dying in its own smoke. Government, business and civic leaders agreed that something had to be done. City officials and industrialists mapped out a plan.

New ordinances were passed. "In 1948 the program started moving," says Stockton.

"Process change" is what Stockton calls it. Railroads began junking their coal-burning

Music Club
Has Annual
Guest Night

Helen G. Steele Music Club held its annual guest night for men on Wednesday, Feb. 15, at Heard Memorial Club House.

A Faculty Quartet from Central Missouri State College composed of Hugh Williams, violinist, David Boltz, Violist, Robert Stewart, cellist, and Marion Davies, pianist, presented an outstanding artist program. An appreciative audience of members and guests displayed their enjoyment by enthusiastic applause at the conclusion of each selection.

The opening number, "Piano Quartet in G Minor, K478," Allegro, by Mozart, was presented by the quartet. Robert Stewart, cellist, presented "Concerto in A Minor, Allegro," by Saint-Saens. David Boltz, violinist, presented "After a Dream" by Faure. Hugh Williams, violinist, presented "Banjo and Fiddle" by William Kroll. The closing number, featuring the quartet, was Piano Quartet in E-flat Major, Op. 47, by Schumann, Sostenuto assai - Allegro ma non troppo, Andante Cantabile, Finale (Vivace).

"Londonderry Aire" was presented as the encore to a most memorable evening of music.

Mrs. L. H. Hodges, president, presided over the program. Mrs. James Callis was chairman for the evening and presented the guest artists.

steam locomotives and replacing them with cleaner diesel power. Smoky old towboats were gradually replaced by diesel boats. Home owners installed stokers on their coal furnaces and bought smokeless coal, or changed to natural gas or oil. The mills and factories installed smoke control equipment.

Violators were given time to comply with the law. If they didn't, fines were meted out.

The steel industry, for example, now has smoke control apparatus on 68 per cent of its open-hearth furnace capacity. The goal is 100 per cent by 1970.

Gas pollution looms as the big problem of the future. Of the 822,000 tons of gas that are expelled by furnaces and machines each year, only 6,300 tons are collected. When a new plant goes into operation in nearby Clairton, it will capture 95 per cent of a steel mill's sulfur dioxide and cut gas pollution in the county by 35 per cent.

NEW YORK—Martha Raye and her dog, Conkie, seem very happy to be in New York following their arrival from Los Angeles. Martha will succeed Ginger Rogers in the long-run musical hit "Hello, Dolly," which will mark her return to the Broadway stage. Martha, who has spent 10 months out of the last two years in South Vietnam, last appeared on Broadway in 1940. (UPI)

Club Notes

Cub Pack 61 held its annual Blue and Gold Banquet, Feb. 7, at Trinity Lutheran Church.

Carrying out the theme of the birthday of Scouting, each table was centered with a birthday cake with the candles being lighted at a designated time. The head table had a large, three layer cake made by Den 3.

Don Livingston was master of ceremonies and entertainment was furnished by Edwards.

Kim Livingston gave the invocation and Warren Pahlow lighted the Spirit of Scouting Candle. Dudley Lehmer gave the history of Scouting.

Five Cubs, David Wells, Tommy Knight, Joey Watson, Bobby Bruns and Randy Harris were presented their Webelos Emblem.

Cubmaster Lyle Wells sent the following Webelos and their parents across the bridge to be received into the Boy Scouts by Scoutmaster Bill Fingland of Troop 61: Rodger Fingland, Dudley Lehmer, Kim Livingston and Warren Pahlow.
